Winter Shadows:

Everyday Life Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran, 2013 How do tiny bugs get into oatmeal What makes children look like or different from their parents Where do rotten apples go after they fall off the tree By presenting everyday mysteries like these this book will motivate your students to carry out hands on science investigations and actually care about the results These 20 open ended mysteries focus exclusively on biological science including botany human physiology zoology and health The stories come with lists of science concepts to explore grade appropriate strategies for using them and explanations of how the lessons align with national standards They also relieve you of the tiring work of designing inquiry lessons from scratch What makes this book so special is the unique way science is integrated into the story line using characters and situations children can easily identify with Page Keeley author of the NSTA Press series Uncovering Student Ideas in Science Even More Everyday Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran, 2010 What are the odds of a meteor hitting your house What are warm clothes anyway Do you get more sunlight from Daylight Saving Time Everyone loves a good mystery and these unfold in the 15 stories presented in Even More Everyday Science Mysteries the third volume in author Richard Konicek Moran s award winning series Again the author uses stories without endings to teach a science principle allowing the students to investigate how each story can be resolved All the stories relate to the world around us and encourage students to take ownership of their learning In Here s the Crusher family members ponder what could have crushed a plastic soda bottle sitting on a table By exploring each family member s idea common misconceptions are uncovered and discussed In Florida Cars Amber seeks out the causes of rust on cars from Florida She experiments with nails to try to discover what ingredients produce rust Your students will tackle Amber s problem and reach their own conclusions Science topics explored include evaporation erosion thermal energy atmospheric pressure buoyancy and density These stories are bound to reveal the wonderful ideas all students have give them the confidence to explore their own thinking and provide opportunities for them to do science rather than have science done to them Page Keeley NSTA President 2008 09

More Everyday Science Mysteries: Stories for Inquiry-Based Science Teaching Richard Konicek-Moran, 2009-04 Through 15 mystery stories this book memorably illustrates science concepts for students and reinforces the value of learning science through inquiry Each mystery presents opportunities for students to create questions form hypotheses test their ideas and come up with explanations Focused on concepts such as periodic motion thermodynamics temperature and energy and sound these mysteries draw students into the stories by grounding them in experiences students are familiar with providing them with a foundation for classroom discussion and inquiry Black & Decker The Complete Guide to Sheds, 2nd Edition Editors of CPI, 2011-11-01 This second edition of CPI s Complete Guide to Contemporary Sheds picks up where the original left off All of the most popular shed plans are still here plus we ve added several new designs to further widen the scope of the styles and plans Because sheds with overhead doors are very popular with homeowners who drive a riding lawn mower or own a snow thrower we feature a third mini garage type shed All major construction steps are shown in clear full color photos accompanied by materials lists and a full set of plan drawings For those who simply want a nice looking outbuilding that s easy to build we ve added new utility shed plans to the mix Combined with more than a dozen full sets of shed plans and step by step photos the up front technique material shows you how to accomplish every aspect of shed building from design to adding roof coverings

Everyday Earth and Space Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran,2013 What are the odds that a meteor will hit your house do you actually get more sunlight from Daylight Savings Time Where do puddles go By presenting everyday mysteries like these this book will motivate your students to carry out hands on science investigations and actually care about the results These 19 open ended mysteries focus exclusively on Earth and space science including astronomy energy climate and geology The stories come with lists of science concepts to explore grade appropriate strategies for using them and explanations of how the lessons align with national standards They also relieve you of the tiring work of designing inquiry lesson from scratch cover verso

Yet More Everyday Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran,2011 In the fourth book of this award winning series author Richard Konicek Moran explores 15 new mysteries children and adults encounter in their daily lives Relating the mysteries to experiences familiar to elementary and middle school students the stories show how science is part of everyday life and initiate inquiry based learning by leaving each mystery without an ending Students identify the problem to be solved formulate questions form hypotheses test their ideas and come up with possible explanations

Black & Decker The Complete Guide to Sheds, 3rd Edition Editors of Cool Springs Press,2017-02-15 This exciting new 3rd edition of the bestselling title Black Decker Complete Guide to Sheds has the perfect plan for anyone who is building his or her own backyard shed
