With Intent To Destroy Reflections On Genocide:

With Intent to Destroy Colin Martin Tatz, 2003-08-14 An exciting and important study of genocide Controversies in the Field of Genocide Studies Samuel Totten, Henry Theriault, Elisa von Joeden-Forgey, 2017-09-29 At the heart of the field of Genocide Studies lies an active core of vigorous debate that has led to both heated disagreements and productive disputes This new volume in the Genocide A Critical Bibliographic Review series focuses on these as well as other significant issues Chapters in this volume focus on a number of issues Did Peru's Ach suffer genocide What was the role of media propaganda in the Rwandan Genocide and what more if anything could have been done about it Have Rwanda's post genocide gacaca courts successfully promoted reconciliation How has denial affected governmental recognition around the world of the Armenian Hellenic and Assyrian genocides Why have some left wing progressives engaged in denial of the Rwandan Genocide Has anti genocide activism had a meaningful effect in prevention of or intervention against genocide In the pages of this book readers can explore the various debates that have defined the study of genocide and that are redefining it today This insightful and provocative volume will entice further discussion on the concept of genocide and will be a must read for the field of genocide studies Genocide Adam Jones, 2006-09-27 An invaluable introduction to the subject of genocide explaining its history from pre modern times to the present day with a wide variety of case studies Recent events in the former Yugoslavia Rwanda East Timor and Iraq have demonstrated with appalling clarity that the threat of genocide is still a major issue within world politics The book examines the differing interpretations of genocide from psychology sociology anthropology and political science and analyzes the influence of race ethnicity nationalism and gender on genocides In the final section the author examines how we punish those responsible for waging genocide and how the international community can prevent further bloodshed Victims of International Crimes: An Interdisciplinary Discourse Thorsten Bonacker, Christoph Safferling, 2013-07-09 In international law victims issues have gained more and more attention over the last decades In particular in transitional justice processes the victim is being given high priority It is to be seen in this context that the Rome Statute for the International Criminal Court foresees a rather excessive victim participation concept in criminal prosecution In this volume issue is taken at first with the definition of victims and secondly with the role of the victim as a witness and as a participant Several chapters address this matter with a view to the International Criminal Court ICC the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia ECCC and the Trial against Demjanjuk in Germany In a third part the interests of the victims outside the criminal trial are being discussed In the final part the role of civil society actors are being tackled This volume thus gives an overview of the role of victims in transitional justice processes from an interdisciplinary angle combining academic research and practical experience Extreme Violence and the 'British Way' Michelle Gordon, 2020-10-29 Analysing three cases of British colonial violence that occurred in the latter half of the 19th century this book argues that all three share commonalities including the role of racial prejudices in justifying the perpetration of extreme colonial violence Exploring the connections and comparisons between the Perak War 1875-76 the Hut Tax Revolt in Sierra Leone 1898-99 and the Anglo Egyptian War of Reconquest in the Sudan 1896-99 Gordon highlights the significance of decision making processes communication between London and the periphery and the influence of individual colonial administrators in outbreaks of violence This study reveals the ways in which racial prejudices the advocacy of a British civilising mission and British racial superiority informed colonial administrators decisions on the ground as well as the rationalisation of extreme violence Responding to a neglect of British colonial atrocities within the historiography of colonial violence this work demonstrates the ways in which Britain was just as willing and able as other European Empires to resort to extreme measures in the face of indigenous resistance or threats to the British imperial project

Human Rights and Human Wrongs Colin Tatz, 2015-04-01 Racism crushes bodies and souls In Human Rights and Human Wrongs Colin Tatz a world authority on racial conflict and abuse a key figure in Aboriginal Studies in Australia and an author of major works on genocide Aboriginal youth suicide and Aboriginal and Islander sporting achievements tells his personal story Born and educated in South Africa Tatz worked to expose and oppose that nation's centuries old apartheid regimes before leaving for what he thought would be a more enlightened nation only to find in Australia striking parallels of that other dismal universe As a researcher writer and activist he has dedicated his life to confronting what people do to other people on the basis of their race or ethnicity Here he also relates how alienation his Jewishness and an intriguing problem with food have been for him propelling forces Tatz's story ranging from Southern Africa to Australia New Zealand Canada and Israel is an important one for anyone genuinely interested in the struggle to achieve social justice for minorities and marginalised peoples

Rights and Redemption Ann Curthoys, Ann Genovese, 2008 History has been central to a number of heated public debates in recent years As Indigenous people have sought redress through the law the role of history in the courts has become highly charged Rights and Redemption is a detailed investigation of the uses of history and historians in high profile cases involving Indigenous litigants something not previously attempted Ann Curthoys Ann Genovese and Alexander Reilly look at cases before the Federal Court during the era of the Howard government a time when Indigenous rights and the place of Aboriginal people in the national story were undermined in government laws and policies They investigate how the courts have made use of historians as expert witnesses and how the colonial past has been framed and understood by the courts Rights and Redemption is an important record of a unique period of litigation in Indigenous affairs in Australia and a meditation on ways in which law and history might improve Indigenous rights Book jacket

Decolonizing God Mark G. Brett, 2008 For centuries the Bible has been used by colonial powers to undergird their imperial designs an ironic situation when so much of the Bible was conceived by way of resistance to empires In this thoughtful book Mark Brett draws upon his experience of the colonial heritage in Australia to identify a remarkable range of areas where God needs to be decolonized freed from the bonds of the colonial Writing in a context where landmark legal cases have ruled that Indigenous Aboriginal rights have been washed away by the tide of history Brett re examines land rights in the biblical traditions Deuteronomy s genocidal imagination and other key topics in both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament where the effects of colonialism can be traced Drawing out the implications for theology and ethics this book provides a comprehensive new proposal for addressing the legacies of colonialism A ground breaking work of scholarship that makes a major intervention into post colonial studies This book confirms the relevance of post colonial theory to biblical scholarship and provides an exciting and original approach to biblical interpretation Bill Ashcroft University of Hong Kong and University of New South Wales author of The Empire Writes Back Theory and Practice in Post Colonial Literatures 2002 Acutely sensitive to the historical as well as theological complexity of the Bible Mark Brett s Decolonizing God brilliantly demonstrates the value of a critical assessment of the Bible as a tool for rethinking contemporary possibilities The contribution of this book to ethical and theological discourse in a global perspective and to a politics of hope is immense Tamara C Eskenazi Hebrew Union College Los Angeles editor of The Torah A Women s Commentary 2007 Australian Book Review ,2003 Australian Journal of Jewish Studies ,2006 Darfur Joyce Apsel,2005 The Historiographic Perversion Marc Nichanian,2009 The law and the fact the 1994 campaign Between amputation and imputation Refutation Testimony from document to monument Jewish Affairs ,2005 Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2005 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Encyclopedia of Genocide and Crimes Against Humanity Dinah Shelton,2005 Presents an alphabetically arranged encyclopedia with over three hundred fifty entries depicting genocide and war crimes from ancient history through the twenty first century and includes information on the various individuals and groups that have been targeted courts and tribunals and various sorts of reparations Index to Black Periodicals 2004 Gk Hall & Company,2005 Annual Report Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies,2004 History, Memory and Mass Atrocity Dan Stone,2006 The book s main theme is the interpretation of the Holocaust and genocide in historiography philosophy and the contemporary culture of commemoration Running through the essays is an attempt to understand the Holocaust s relationship to modernity the need to find ways of understanding genocide through apparently non rational forms of explanation especially derived from anthropology and the desirability of relating the Holocaust to other instances of genocide The book investigates the ways in which individual thinkers Malinowski Arendt Bataille Percey Ricoeur can help us conceptualise the Holocaust and also deals with many of the major themes of Holocaust and Genocide Studies in recent years problems of handling testimony problems of erecting monuments and museums the representability of the Holocaust through texts photographs monuments and museums the possibility of understanding why individuals take part in genocide and the relationship of the Holocaust to colonial genocide Contains previously inaccessible essays The book is arranged into four sections interpretations of the origins and nature of the Holocaust studies of individual thinkers responses to the Holocaust questions of representation and commemoration and understanding genocide The Holocaust and Apartheid Juliette Peires, 2006 The book looks at discriminatory legal framework of Nazi Germany and South Africa apartheid system and compares human rights abuses social control restriction of living areas and disparities in employment
