The Face Of Evil:

The Changing Face of Evil in Film and Television Martin F. Norden, 2007 The popular media of film and television surround us daily with images of evil images that have often gone critically unexamined In the belief that people in ever increasing numbers are turning to the media for their understanding of evil this lively and provocative collection of essays addresses the changing representation of evil in a broad spectrum of films and television programmes Written in refreshingly accessible and de jargonised prose the essays bring to bear a variety of philosophical and critical perspectives on works ranging from the cinema of famed director Alfred Hitchcock and the preternatural horror films Halloween and Friday the 13th to the understated documentary Human Remains and the television coverage of the immediate post 9 11 period The Changing Face of Evil in Film and Television is for anyone interested in the moving image representation of that pervasive yet highly misunderstood thing we call evil Contents Martin F NORDEN Introduction Matthew SOAR The Bite at the Beginning Encoding Evil Through Film Title Design Linda BRADLEY SALAMON Screening Evil in History Rope Compulsion Scarface Richard III Mike FRANK The Radical Monism of Alfred Hitchcock Cynthia FREELAND Natural Evil in the Horror Film Alfred Hitchcock's The Birds Matt HILLS and Steven Jay SCHNEIDER The Devil Made Me Do It Representing Evil and Disarticulating Mind Body in the Supernatural Serial Killer Film Thomas HIBBS Virtue Vice and the Harry Potter Universe Robin R MEANS COLEMAN and Jasmine Nicole COBB Training Day and The Shield Evil Cops and the Taint of Blackness Martin F NORDEN The Uncanny Relationship of Disability and Evil in Film and Television Carlo CELLI Comedy and the Holocaust in Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful La vita e bella Garnet C BUTCHART On the Void The Fascinating Object of Evil in Human Remains John F STONE The Perfidious President and The Beast Evil in Oliver Stone's Nixon Gary R EDGERTON William B HART and Frances HASSENCAHL Televising 9 11 and Its Aftermath The Framing of George W Bush's Faith Based Politics of Good and Evil Bibliography Notes on Contributors Index

The Face of Love Ellen Zetzel Lambert, 1996-07-01 To see beauty as the face of love rather than the arbitrary gift of fortune is to enlarge our sense of life's possibilities A woman becomes beautiful when she believes that her appearance reflects her essential self Ellen Zetzel Lambert explores the connection of physical appearance to self esteem through photography literature and life experience

The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo, 2012-12-01 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development
