Travelling Home, 'Walkabout Magazine' and Mid-Twentieth-Century Australia Mitchell Rolls, Anna Johnston, 2016-07-06
Travelling Home provides a detailed analysis of the contribution that the mid twentieth century Walkabout magazine made to Australia s cultural history Spanning five central decades of the twentieth century 1934 1974 Walkabout was integral to Australia s sense of itself as a nation By advocating travel both vicarious and actual Walkabout encouraged settler Australians to broaden their image of the nation and its place in the Pacific region In this way Walkabout explicitly aimed to make its readers feel at home in their country as well as including a diverse picture of Aboriginal and Pacific cultures Given its wide availability and distribution together with its accessible and entertaining content Walkabout changed how Australia was perceived and the magazine is recalled with nostalgic fondness by most if not all of its former readers Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship Travelling Home engages with key questions in literary cultural and Australian studies about national identity and modernity The book s diverse topics demonstrate how Walkabout canvassed subtle and shifting fields of representation as a result this analysis produces complex and nuanced readings of Australian literary and cultural history
