London S. Groes, 2015-12-04 London has become the focus of a ferocious imaginative energy since the rise of Thatcher The Making of London analyses the body of work by writers who have committed their writing to the many lives of a city undergoing complex transformations tracing a major shift in the representation of the capital city London Narratives Lawrence Phillips, 2006-09-25 The post war redevelopment of London has been the most extensive in its history and has been accompanied by a dramatic social and cultural upheaval This book explores the literary re-imagining of the city in post war fiction and argues that the image history and narrative of the city has been transformed alongside the physical rebuilding and repositioning of the capital Drawing on the ideas of Michel de Certeau Henri Lefebvre Anthony Vigler and others as well as the latest work on urban representation this book is an important contribution to the study of the intersection between place lived experience and the literary imagination Texts covered include novels by some of the most significant and lesser known authors of the period including Graham Greene George Orwell J G Ballard Stella Gibbons David Lodge Doris Lessing B

S Johnson Sam Selvon V S Naipaul Peter Ackroyd and Iain Sinclair      Urban Undergrounds Patricia García, David Pike, 2025-05-20 Research in urban development in the social sciences has increasingly emphasized the importance of underground infrastructure for envisaging sustainable cities and for critiquing the economies of extraction Urban Undergrounds Contemporary Literary and Cultural Perspectives demonstrates the urgency of integrating a below ground perspective into the emerging field of the Urban Humanities The collection is divided into three thematic sections that cluster and revisit different sets of well known motifs in Underground Studies Displaced Buried and Wasted It showcases the intermedial nature of underground focused analyses in literature extending from literary texts to a wider range of cultural forms including films graphic novels and videogames The contributors build on recent scholarship that has expanded the field into new interdisciplinary areas including intersections with memory studies ecocriticism and decolonial perspectives Urban Undergrounds also explores lesser studied subterranean spaces including those of Warsaw Athens Mexico City Johannesburg and Santiago de Chile The book's substantial introduction offers a guiding theoretical and methodological framework for future scholars working with underground perspectives in literary and cultural studies This thought provoking and illuminating collection is a valuable resource for students and scholars in the areas of Literary Urban Studies Underground Studies and Geocriticism and more broadly in the Urban Humanities and Spatial Humanities      Walking and the Aesthetics of Modernity Klaus Benesch, François Specq, 2016-08-31 This book gathers together an array of international scholars critics and artists concerned with the issue of walking as a theme in modern literature philosophy and the arts Covering a wide array of authors and media from eighteenth century fiction writers and travelers to contemporary film digital art and artists books the essays collected here take a broad literary and cultural approach to the art of walking which has received considerable interest due to the burgeoning field of mobility studies Contributors demonstrate how walking far from constituting a simplistic naïve or transparent cultural script allows for complex visions and reinterpretations of a human's relation to modernity introducing us to a world of many different and changing realities      The Fantastic of the Fin de Siècle Zdeněk Beran, Irena Grubica, 2016-09-23 This volume explores various facets of the relationship between the fantastic and the fin de siècle The essays included here examine how the fin de siècle reflects the fantastic and its relation to the genesis of aesthetic ideas to the concepts of terror and horror the sublime and evil to Gothic and sensation fiction to the Aesthetic Movement and Decadence They also raise the question regarding the ways in which fantastic literature reflects the dynamic and all too often controversial development of the concept of the fantastic At the same time the majority of the contributions also investigate a broader context of specific social political and economic conditions that frame the fantastic of the fin de siècle They examine how fantastic genres use narrative manipulations and how they incorporate various ideas of scientific development and progress by highlighting the role of religion cultural anxiety and social crisis as well as exploring the ways such genres use the fantastic for various purposes of cultural and social subversion Fin de siècle fantastic literature is also investigated across a variety of cultures as reflected in Scottish Canadian Australian American and British writing with particular emphasis on their predominant cultural or generic aspects the genesis of the fin de siècle fantastic in some of these cultures and literatures and their relations to a wider historical and cultural framework The essays as a whole represent the work of scholars working in a diverse range of fields and therefore adopt a wide range of approaches to the fantastic As such this volume provides a fresh and stimulating platform for further rethinking of the concept of the fantastic and its relation to fin de siècle literature and its theoretical philosophical generic and other implications within a broader literary social and cultural context

London in Cinema Charlotte Brunsdon,2019-07-25 Charlotte Brunsdon's illuminating study explores the variety of cinematic Londons that appear in films made since 1945 Brunsdon traces the familiar ways that film makers establish that a film is set in London by use of recognisable landmarks and the city's shorthand iconography of red buses and black taxis as well as the ways in which these icons are avoided She looks at London weather fog and rain and everyday locations like the pub and the housing estate while also examining the recurring patterns of representation associated with films set in the East and West Ends of London from Spring in Park Lane 1948 to Mona Lisa 1986 and from Night and the City 1950 to From Hell 2001 Brunsdon provides a detailed analysis of a selection of films exploring their contribution to the cinematic geography of London and showing the ways in which feature films have responded to and created changing views of the city She traces London's transformation from imperial capital to global city through the different ways in which the local is imagined in films ranging from Ealing comedies to Pressure 1974 as well as through the shifting imagery of the River Thames and the Docks She addresses the role of cinematic genres such as horror and film noir in the constitution of the cinematic city as well as the recurrence of figures such as the cockney the gangster and the housewife Challenging the view that London is not a particularly cinematic city Brunsdon demonstrates that many London set films offer their own meditation on the complex relationships between the cinema and the city

Neo-Victorian Cities ,2015-02-04 This volume explores the complex aesthetic cultural and memory politics of urban representation and reconfiguration in neo Victorian discourse and practice Through adaptations of traditional city tropes such as the palimpsest the labyrinth the femininised enigma and the marketplace of desire writers filmmakers and city planners resurrect preserve and rework nineteenth century metropolises and their material traces while simultaneously Gothicising and fabricating past urban realities to serve present day wants so as to maximise cities potential to generate consumption and profits Within the cultural imaginary of the metropolis this volume contends the nineteenth century provides a prominent focalising lens that mediates our apperception of and engagement with postmodern cityscapes From the site of capitalist romance and traumatic lieux de mémoire to theatre of postcolonial resistance and Gothic sensationalism the neo Victorian city proves a veritable Proteus evoking myriad creative responses but also crystallising persistent ethical dilemmas surrounding alienation precarity Othering and social exclusion
