Writers Program 1:

Untenured Faculty as Writing Program Administrators Debra Frank Dew, Alice Horning, 2007-08-06 Contributors examine the politics of untenured writing program administrator appointments given the demands of writing program administration and reconciles the tension between WPA position statements and current institutional practice Writing Program Administration and the Community College Heather Ostman, 2013-10-01 From the history of the community college in the United States to current issues and concerns facing writing programs and their administrators and instructors Writing Program Administration and the Community College offers a comprehensive look into writing programs at public two year institutions The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administrating writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts Writing Program Architecture Bryna Siegel Finer, Jamie White-Farnham, 2017-11-01 Writing Program Architecture offers an unprecedented abundance of information concerning the significant material logistical and rhetorical features of writing programs Presenting the realities of thirty diverse and award winning programs contributors to the volume describe reporting lines funding sources jurisdictions curricula and other critical programmatic matters and provide insight into their program histories politics and philosophies Each chapter opens with a program snapshot that includes summary demographic and historical information and then addresses the profile of the WPA program conception population served funding assessment technology curriculum and more The architecture of the book itself makes comparison across programs and contexts easy not only among the programs described in each chapter but also between the program in any given chapter and the reader's own program An online web companion to the book includes access to the primary documents that have been of major importance to the development or sustainability of the program described in a Primary Document section of each chapter The metaphor of architecture allows us to imagine the constituent parts of a writing program as its foundation beams posts scaffolding the institutional structures that alongside its people anchor a program to the ground and keep it standing The most extensive resource on program structure available to the field Writing Program Architecture illuminates structural choices made by leaders of exemplary programs around the United States and provides an authoritative source of standard practice that a WPA might use to articulate programmatic choices to higher administration Contributors Susan Naomi Bernstein Remica Bingham Risher Brent Chappelow Malkiel Chosed Angela Clark Oates Patrick Clauss Emily W Cosgrove Thomas Deans Bridget Draxler Leigh Ann Dunning Greg A Giberson Maggie Griffin Taylor Paula Harrington Sandra Jamieson Marshall Kitchens Michael Knieval Amy Lannin Christopher LeCluyse Sarah Liggett Deborah Marrott Mark McBeth Tim McCormack John McCormick Heather McGrew Heather McKay Heidi A McKee Julianne Newmark Lori Ostergaard Joannah Portman Daley Jacqueline Preston James P Purdy Ben Rafoth Dara Regaignon Nedra Reynolds Shirley Rose Bonnie Selting Stacey Sheriff Steve Simpson Patricia Sullivan Kathleen Tonry Sanford Tweedie Meg Van Baalen Wood Shevaun Watson Christy I Wenger Lisa Wilkinson Candace Zepeda Transnational Writing Program Administration David S. Martins, 2014-08-15 While local conditions remain at the forefront of writing program administration transnational activities are slowly and thoroughly shifting the questions we ask about writing curricula the space and place in which writing happens and the cultural and linguistic issues at the heart of the relationships forged in literacy work Transnational Writing Program Administration challenges taken for granted assumptions regarding program identity curriculum and pedagogical effectiveness logistics and quality assurance faculty and student demographics innovative partnerships and research and the infrastructure needed to support writing instruction in higher education Well known scholars and new voices in the field extend the theoretical underpinnings of writing program administration to consider programs activities and institutions involving students and faculty from two or more countries working together and highlight the situated practices of such efforts The collection brings translingual graduate students at the forefront of writing studies together with established administrators teachers and researchers and intends to enrich the efforts of WPAs by examining the practices and theories that impact our ability to conceive of writing program administration as transnational This collection will enable writing program administrators to take the emerging locations of writing instruction seriously to address the role of language difference in writing and to engage critically with the key notions and approaches to writing program administration that reveal its transnationality Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration Lydia Wilkes, Lilian W. Mina, Patti Poblete, 2023-02-15 The field of writing program administration has long been a space rich in metaphor From plate twirling to fire extinguishing parents to dungeon masters and much more the work of a WPA extends to horizons unknown Responding to the constraints of austerity Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new lenses for established WPAs and provides aspiring and early career WPAs with a sense of the range of responsibilities and opportunities in their academic and professional spaces This volume presents twelve chapters that reclaim and revise established metaphors offer new metaphors based on sustainable relational or emotional labor practices and phenomena and reveal the improvisational artisanal nature of WPA work Chapters resonate across three sections The first section focuses on organic relationships captured in phrases like putting out fires and seeing forests for the trees alongside unexpected comparisons to ground and light The second describes institutional landscapes featuring generative juxtapositions such as the WPA as a labor activist or a mapper of emotional geography And the third discusses performance crafts like improv comedy and artisanal making Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new and revised ways of thinking and acting for WPAs who are constantly negotiating the paradoxical demands of their work and continually striving to act ethically in conflicted and even fraught situations It will inspire practicing aspiring and former WPAs working in a time of transformation by highlighting more sustainable ways of enacting WPA identity Contributors Jacob Babb John Belk Katherine Daily O Meara Ryan J Dippre Douglas Hesse Andrew Hollinger Rona Kaufman Cynthia D Mwenja Manny Pi a Scott Rogers Robyn Tasaka Alexis Teagarden Christy I Wenger Lydia Wilkes
