The Concept of Freedom in the Writings of St. Francis de Sales Eunan McDonnell,2009

Through the examination of the concept of freedom in the writings of St Francis de Sales the author concludes that in contradistinction to a contemporary understanding of freedom perceived as self determination a Salesian understanding privileges freedom s relationship to the good This situates St Francis de Sales in the classical Thomistic tradition of freedom s necessary relationship to the good but involves a methodological shift as he employs the Renaissance starting point of the turn to the subject This study demonstrates how St Francis arrives inductively at what St Thomas demonstrated deductively namely the essential relationship of freedom to the good

Along with this Thomistic influence the author analyses the Salesian indebtedness to Augustinian anthropology which explains the primacy St Francis gives to the will and consequently to love Love understood as the heart s movement towards the good allows the Salesian approach to move beyond the confines of a traditional faculty psychology to embrace a more biblical understanding of the human person

This examination of love s relationship to freedom reveals their teleological and archaeological natures coming back to our origins wherein we discover the source of our freedom bestowed on us as a gift
