Spiritual Instructions for Religious Charles Coppins,1923 Spiritual Instructions for Religious Charles Coppins,Charles Coppins Sj,Brother Hermenegild,2013-03-16 St Alphonsus Liguori has stated that one of the clearest tokens that a person is on the way to eternal happiness is an eagerness to hear the word of God The writer of these instructions has uniformly found during the experience of many years that this excellent disposition exists in a high degree of perfection among the inmates of our convents And yet very many of those devout souls are so situated that for months they cannot hear any religious instruction at least not such discourses as apply the sacred truths of revelation to the peculiar needs of their holy vocation It is to supply this want of oral addresses that these pages are respectfully presented they are chiefly intended to be read in community where a little effort of the imagination may suffice to produce about the same impression as if they were uttered by the lips of a priest of God Let us consider this excerpt First then the nature of holiness We will take as our instructor in this important matter our dear Lord Himself He gave this great lesson for all future ages on the night before His sacred passion when He discoursed for the last time in this life with His Apostles Let us imagine that we are seated with them before the Divine teacher treasuring up in our loving hearts every word that falls from His sacred lips He spoke as follows St John who was present has recorded the very words I am the true vine and my Father is the husbandman Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he will take away and everyone that beareth fruit he will purge it that it may bring forth more fruit Abide in me and I in you As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abide in the vine so neither can you unless you abide in me I am the vine you the branches he that abideth in me and I in him the same beareth much fruit for without me you can do nothing If anyone abide not in me he shall be cast forth as a branch and shall wither and they shall gather him up and cast him into the fire and he burneth If you abide in me and my words abide in you you shall ask whatever you will and it shall be done unto you In this is my Father glorified that you bring forth very much fruit and become my disciples XV 18 And this should show that these instructions although written for religious apply to all Christians St Teresa tells us clearly in that remarkable autobiography which she wrote by the order of her confessor that she was a very imperfect religious during nearly twenty years and that she was converted by prayer To quote her own words I wish she writes that I could obtain leave to declare the many times I failed during this period in my obligations to God because I was not supported by the strong pillar of mental prayer I passed through this tempestuous sea almost twenty years between these fallings and risings though I rose very imperfectly since I fell again so quickly and in this kind of life which was so far below perfection I made almost no account of venial sins and for mortal ones I feared them it is true but not so much as I ought to have done since I did not avoid the dangerous occasions And the Saint adds The reason why I have given this account is that it may be understood how great a blessing God bestows on that soul which He disposes to practise mental prayer with a good will even though she were not SO well prepared for it as she should be But if she perseveres therein whatever sins she may commit whatever temptations may be presented to her or whatever falls she may receive in a thousand different ways from the devil I consider it certain that our Lord will in the end bring her safe to the port of salvation
