Teachers Craft File:

The Teacher's Craft File Linda S. Day, 1998-09 Microsoft PowerPoint(R) Simple Projects Jan Rader, 2004-11 The Art of Life in South Africa Daniel Magaziner, 2016-11-09 From 1952 to 1981 South Africa's apartheid government ran an art school for the training of African art teachers at Indaleni in what is today KwaZulu Natal. The Art of Life in South Africa is the story of the students, teachers, art, and politics that circulated through a small school housed in a remote former mission station. It is the story of a community that made its way through the travails of white supremacist South Africa and demonstrates how the art students and teachers made together became the art of their lives. Daniel Magaziner radically reframes apartheid era South African history. Against the dominant narrative of apartheid oppression and black resistance as well as recent scholarship that explores violence, criminality, and the hopeless entanglements of the apartheid state, this book focuses instead on a small group's efforts to fashion more fulfilling lives for its members and their community through the ironic medium of the apartheid era school. There is no book like this in South African historiography. Lushly illustrated and poetically written, it gives us fully formed lives that offer remarkable insights into the now clichéd experience of black life under segregation and apartheid.

Elementary Teacher's Arts and Crafts Ideas for Every Month of the Year Irene Robbins, 1970 Pupil, Teacher and Family Voice in Educational Institutions Janice Wearmouth, Andrew Goodwyn, 2019-03-14 Taking a novel approach to the concept of voice within education systems, this insightful text considers the extent to which the values, opinions, beliefs, and perspectives of pupils, families, teachers, and members of senior management are heard in educational settings and explores what can be learned from integrating their views and opinions in decision-making processes. Pupil, Teacher and Family Voice in Educational Institutions traces the historical and legal developments which have heralded an increased appreciation of individuals' perspectives in key decision-making processes. Chapters consider how various parties can be encouraged to voice their opinions and beliefs and address the issues and challenges which may face institutions as they seek to create an atmosphere of open and active consultation and engagement. Drawing on evidence-based research, case studies, and personal accounts, chapters reflect upon the concept of voice in diverse settings and acknowledge the sometimes significant divergence between the intended and actual extent to which such opinions, beliefs, and perspectives are reflected in day-to-day practice. Offering in-depth exploration of the concept of voice and the benefits, implications, challenges, and practicalities associated with it, this text will be of interest to future and in-service teachers, educational researchers, and policy makers.
