Creatures of Darkness Gene D. Phillips, 2021-03-17 An exhaustively researched survey of Raymond Chandler's thorny relationship with Hollywood during the classic period of film noir Alain Silver film producer and author Raymond Chandler's seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long

Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler s unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks s director s cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler s sometimes difficult personality Chandler s wisecracking private eye Philip Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author s dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler s stark vision

Film Noir, American Workers, and Postwar Hollywood Dennis Broe, 2009-01-25 Film noir which flourished in 1940s and 50s reflected the struggles and sentiments of postwar America Dennis Broe contends that the genre with its emphasis on dark subject matter paralleled the class conflict in labor and union movements that dominated the period By following the evolution of film noir during the years following World War II Broe illustrates how the noir figure represents labor as a whole In the 1940s both radicalized union members and protagonists of noir films were hunted and pursued by the law Later as labor unions achieve broad acceptance and respectability the central noir figure shifts from fugitive criminal to law abiding cop Expanding his investigation into the Cold War and post 9 11 America Broe extends his analysis of the ways film noir is intimately connected to labor history A brilliant interdisciplinary examination this is a work that will appeal to a broad spectrum of readers Munsey's Weekly, 1917

Economic Investigations in Twentieth-Century Detective Fiction Yan Zi-Ling, 2016-03-09 In his study of Golden Age and hard boiled detective fiction from 1890 to 1950 Yan Zi Ling argues that these two subgenres can be distinguished not only by theme and style but by the way they structure knowledge value and productive labour Using the detective as a reference point and enactor of socially based interests Yan shows that Golden Age texts are distinguished by their conservatism and not only by their conservatism with the detectives actions serving to stabilize institutions with specific ideological aims In contrast the criminal investigations of the hard boiled detective who is poorly aligned with institutions and strong interest groups reveal the fragility of the status quo in the face of escalating cycles of violence Key to Yan s discussion are theories of exchange value and the gift the latter of which he suggests is more akin to detective work than is wage labour Analyzing texts by a wide range of authors that includes Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie Dashiell

Hammett Raymond Chandler Dorothy Sayers Raoul Whitfield George Harmon Coxe and Mickey Spillane Yan demonstrates that the detective s truth generating function most often characterized as a process of discovery rather than creation is in fact crucial to the institutional and class based interests that he or she serves
