By Little Darcie Badger

The 3 big main traits that I think would describe Grace very well are educated, extrovert, and mature. Educated. I consider Grace an educated girl because she knew that she needed to stand up for her tribe and culture, so she took the matter in her own hands and decided to do something. She was able to have a chance to speak in front of the school about where she's from, all thanks to her friend Naomi and completed it without any problems. "My humanity is not up for debate. Xásteoyo." In other words, "my culture, traditions, and race are not to be argued about in a bad way. Thank you." Extrovert. Many people would say Grace is an introvert, but I think she's more of an extrovert. Grace was able to make new friends on the first day of school by being sociable and friendly to others and was also brave enough to express her feelings and thoughts to her school about where she's from and how her and her ancestors were all a part of the Lipan Apache tribe. Now that is a really impressive thing to do! Mature "The moment I left a place, I treated it's people like memories. Things of the past that gradually fade away until they might as well be faceless and nameless extras in the movie of my life." Mature is a big part of Grace because when she had to leave the people she loved behind, she decided not to be sad about it, and rather let it turn into special memories that will be kept with her forever. This explains how she's growing up and understanding that there are some things that she needs to give up on, but there are also new things to take in.

Kassis,2023-11-03 From the Foreword This Concordance of the Qur'an in English satisfies a paramount need of those and there are millions of them who have no command of the Arabic language and yet desire to understand the Qur'an The benefit derivable from English translations of the Sacred Book is in principle limited because first the Qur'an is not a book but a collection of passages revealed to Muhammad over a period of about twenty three years and second because the Qur'an is not really translatable This does not mean that the Qur'an should not be translated It does mean that translations lose much in tone and nuance let alone the incommunicable beauty grandeur and grace of the original The main distinction of Hanna Kassis's concordance in my view is that it utilizes the semantic structure of Arabic vocabulary itself in revealing the meaning of the Qur'an on any given issue point or concept A reader who looks in the index of this concordance for a word which he has encountered in reading an English translation of the Qur'an the word pride for example is directed immediately to the roots of the Arabic Qur'anic terms for pride At the entries for these Arabic roots all the derivative forms are shown and the verses of the Qur'an in which they appear are there listed in translation I am confident that any person who is sincerely interested in understanding the Qur'an and appreciating the nuances of its diction and shades of its meaning can satisfy his need more
