On the Home Front Kate Darian-Smith, 2009-04-01 What really happened on the Australian home front during the Second World War For the people of Melbourne these were years of social dislocation and increased government interference in all aspects of daily life On the Home Front is the story of their work leisure relationships and their fears for by 1942 the city was pitted with air raid trenches and in the half light of the brownout Melburnians awaited a Japanese invasion As women left the home to replace men in factories and offices the traditional roles of mothers and wives were challenged The presence of thousands of American soldiers in Melbourne raised new questions about Australian nationalism and identity and the carnival spirit of many on the home front created anxiety about the issues of drunkenness gambling and sexuality Kate Darian Smith's classic and evocative study of Melbourne in wartime draws upon the memories of men and women who lived through those turbulent years when society grappled with the tensions between a restrictive government and new opportunities for social and sexual freedoms Home visitor's handbook for the Head Start home-based program option ,2004
