Tragic Beauty in Whitehead and Japanese Aesthetics Steve Odin,2016-05-19 The present volume endeavors to make a contribution to contemporary Whitehead studies by clarifying his axiological process metaphysics including his theory of values concept of aesthetic experience and doctrine of beauty along with his philosophy of art literature and poetry Moreover it establishes an east west dialogue focusing on how Alfred North Whitehead s process aesthetics can be clarified by the traditional Japanese Buddhist sense of evanescent beauty As this east west dialogue unfolds it is shown that there are many striking points of convergence between Whitehead s process aesthetics and the traditional Japanese sense of beauty However the work especially focuses on two of Whitehead s aesthetic categories including the penumbral beauty of darkness and the tragic beauty of perishability while further demonstrating parallels with the two Japanese aesthetic categories of y gen and aware It is clarified how both Whitehead and the Japanese tradition have articulated a poetics of evanescence that celebrates the transience of aesthetic experience and the ephemerality of beauty Finally it is argued that both Whitehead and Japanese tradition develop an aesthetics of beauty as perishability culminating in a religio aesthetic vision of tragic beauty and its reconciliation in the supreme ecstasy of peace or nirvana

Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of The Quality Of Blue a wonderful literary prize full of organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this moving evaluation, we can investigate the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
