They Were Strangers:

Before We Were Strangers Renée Carlino, 2015-08-18 From the USA TODAY bestselling author of Sweet Thing and Nowhere But Here comes a love story about a Craigslist missed connection post that gives two people a second chance at love fifteen years after they were separated in New York City To the Green eyed Lovebird We met fifteen years ago almost to the day when I moved my stuff into the NYU dorm room next to yours at Senior House You called us fast friends I like to think it was more We lived on nothing but the excitement of finding ourselves through music you were obsessed with Jeff Buckley photography I couldn't stop taking pictures of you hanging out in Washington Square Park and all the weird things we did to make money I learned more about myself that year than any other Yet somehow it all fell apart We lost touch the summer after graduation when I went to South America to work for National Geographic When I came back you were gone A part of me still wonders if I pushed you too hard after the wedding I didn't see you again until a month ago It was a Wednesday You were rocking back on your heels balancing on that thick yellow line that runs along the subway platform waiting for the F train I didn't know it was you until it was too late and then you were gone Again You said my name I saw it on your lips I tried to will the train to stop just so I could say hello After seeing you all of the youthful feelings and memories came flooding back to me and now I've spent the better part of a month wondering what your life is like I might be totally out of my mind but would you like to get a drink with me and catch up on the last decade and a half M Complete Works ...
