Thinking And Perceiving:

Thinking and Perceiving Dustin Stokes,2021-05-26 Human beings are in contact with the world through their minds One can make sensory perceptual contact with the world One sees the tree and hears its leaves flutter And one makes cognitive contact with the world One forms beliefs about the tree memories of how it was in the past and expectations of how it will be in the future Can the first perception be influenced in important ways by the second cognition Do cognitive states such as memories beliefs and expectations affect what one perceives through the senses And what is the importance of these possible relations to how we theorize and understand the human mind Possible cognitive influence on perception sometimes called cognitive penetration of perception has been long debated in philosophy of mind and cognitive science Some argue that such influence occurs while others argue that it does not or cannot In this excellent introduction and overview of the problem Dustin Stokes examines the following The philosophical and scientific background to cognition and perception Contemporary ways of distinguishing cognition and perception Questions about the representational content of perception versus cognition Distinct theories of mental architecture modularity versus malleability Consequences for epistemology philosophy of science and aesthetics Philosophical and scientific research on perceptual attention Perceptual skill learning and expertise Perceptual content objectivity and cultural bias Additional features such as chapter summaries suggestions for further reading and a glossary make Thinking and Perceiving an ideal resource for students of philosophy of mind and psychology cognitive psychology and cognitive science Thinking and Perceiving John W. MacKay,2018-04-09 From scaredy cats to moody cows we often give animals personality when we talk about them but does this have any basis in scientific fact How can we tell if a cat is feeling fear and how does a grumpy cow behave What would make an animal an individual And what makes them unique Only recently has science confirmed that animals have distinct individual personalities shown through behavioural research Animal Personality introduces the fundamentals of personality science and research describing the history of behavioural testing and then drills into scientific measurement recording and statistical analysis of individual personalities in animals The author shows how the implications of animals having personalities affects how we treat and care for pets farm animals and wildlife Interesting questions are posed such as what is the evolutionary reason for traits like fearfulness aggression and sociability Have we anthropomorphised animals needs for social interactions What are the neurological and genetic bases of personality How has personality affected the domestication of wild species And it questions long held beliefs about animal traits such as dominance theory Animal Personality provides a fascinating and informed insight into the science of personality and its application to non human animals Ethologists and animal owners will find this an illuminating and thought provoking resource
