Thirteenth Summer:

The Thirteenth Summer Never Ends Dianne Souza-Jamiol, 2011 This story takes place in a small city during summer vacation in 1963 Dyan's biggest worry for a thirteen year old is to make this summer a memorable one Her best friends Jeanette and Dena will help her accomplish that Dyan also meets three other girls and they all become a family Dyan loves the simple things that life brings her way She is feisty strong willed caring sensitive and sometimes stubborn One bad choice though will change everything It will bring tragedy and heartache too much for any young teenager to bear If Dyan could relive that summer over again she would The girls will eventually learn that life is too short and that they should make every moment count Dyan loves her family her friends and her life in general and when your thirteen years old nothing can go wrong or at least that's what Dyan thinks This book may be for teen readers and older readers as well It's a nostalgic view of the early 60's a time when life was simple and happy Readers that lived in the 1960's era hopefully this will bring back some fond memories If I made one person smile while reading my book then to me it is a success
