Re-Constructing the Book Maureen Bell, Shirley Chew, Simon Eliot,2019-01-15 This title was first published in 2001 Literary critics textual editors and bibliographers and historians of publishing have hitherto tended to publish their research as if in separate fields of enquiry The purpose of this volume is to bring together contributions from these fields in a dialogue rooted in the transmission of texts Arranged chronologically so as to allow the use of individual sections relevant to period literature courses the book offers students and teachers a set of essays designed to reflect these approaches and to signal their potential for fruitful integration Some of the essays answer the demand Show me what literary critics or textual editor or book historians do and how they do it and stand as examples of the different concerns methodologies and strategies employed Others draw attention to the potential of the approaches in combination The American Diaries, 1902-1926 Theodore Dreiser,2015-09-30 Dreiser s careful preservation of his papers bears new fruit with the publication of his personal diaries for the years 1902-26 This volume presents all seven of Dreiser s hitherto unpublished American diaries the intermittent journals he kept during the most productive years of his literary career Together they constitute a revealing self portrait as well as a valuable commentary on the American scene during the first quarter of the twentieth century They offer reflections on turn of the century Philadelphia the American South and Mid West Greenwich Village of the nineteen teens and Hollywood of the twenties The diaries begin in 1902 when Dreiser was at a low point after the suppression of Sister Carrie and continue until 1926 when he was enjoying the greatest success of his career with An American Tragedy This publication constitutes in its entirety a new source for biographical and critical study This is particularly true of the diaries covering Dreiser s experience in Philadelphia Greenwich Village and with Helen Richardson all of which were not available to previous biographers The present Introduction by Professor Riggio is the first biographical narrative to make use of these materials Future biographers will now be able to speak with more assurance of Dreiser s whereabouts the people he knew what he was reading which writings were in progress and of his fascinating private affairs in general In addition these diaries will be of interest to students of Dreiser s literary art as they reveal subtle aspects of how Dreiser viewed the external world and transmuted it in his daily creative efforts Francis Parkman's Works Francis Parkman,1894 Chen Hua ,1916 Village Diary Miss ... Reid (pseud. van Dora Saint.),1957 Readings in Russian Civilization Volume II Thomas Riha,2009-02-15 This new and enlarged version of Readings in Russian Civilization is the result of fairly extensive revisions There are now 72 instead of 64 items 20 of the selections are new The first volume has undergone the least change with 3 new items of which 2 appear in English for the first time In the second volume there are 6 new items all of them appear in English for the first time The third volume has undergone the greatest revision with 11 new items of which 6 are newly translated from the Russian It is the editor s hope that items left out in the new edition will not be sorely missed and that the new selections will turn out to be useful and illuminating The aim throughout has been to cover areas of knowledge and periods which had been neglected in the first edition and to include topics which are important in the study of the Russian past and present The bibliographical headnotes have been enlarged with the result that there are now approximately twice as many entries as in the old edition New citations include not only works which have appeared since 1963 but also older books and articles which have come to the editor s attention From the Editor s Preface a judicious combination of seminal works and more recent commentaries that achieves the editor s purpose of stimulating curiosity and developing a point of view C Bickford O Brien The Russian Review These three volumes cover quite well the main periods of Russian civilization The choice of the articles and other material is made by a competent and unbiased scholar Ivan A Lopatin Professor of Asian and Slavic Studies University of Southern California
