Fit for Battle Jenny R. Puckett,2011-07-08 The most turbulent period in the history of Wake Forest University 1941 1967 was also the most startlingly productive This era began in eastern North Carolina in the decade of the 1940 s when the school came perilously close to extinction but it fought to survive In 1946 a stunning offer to revive the school was accepted but Wake Forest knew that the massive changes ahead would require a type of leader as yet unseen in its 116 years of existence In 1950 a singular man was chosen to build a new campus and lead the march westward transplanting the entire campus from rural Wake County North Carolina to the bustling city of Winston Salem Those who knew this man are still telling stories about him Harold Wayland Tribble was the man who would keep Wake Forest in the forefront of the local and national news reports for decades and whose public disputes ignited passionate reactions from across the state and nation His life story as told to the author by his family members his personal papers friends rivals and other sources was as fascinating as were the changing times during which he served Wake Forest This volume contains numerous untold stories of a controversial leader who fought many battles on behalf of the people and institutions that he loved
