Teachers Body:

The Teacher's Body Diane P. Freedman, Martha Stoddard Holmes, 2012-02-01 These highly personal essays from a range of academic settings explore the palpable moments of discomfort disempowerment and or enlightenment that emerge when we discard the fiction that the teacher has no body Visible and or invisible the body can transform both the teacher s experience and classroom dynamics When students think the teacher s body is clearly marked by ethnicity race disability size gender sexuality illness age pregnancy class linguistic and geographic origins or some combination of these both the mode and the content of education can change Other less visible aspects of a teacher s body such as depression or a history of sexual assault can have an equally powerful impact on how we teach and learn The collection anatomizes these moments of embodied pedagogy as unexpected teaching opportunities and examines their apparent impact on teacher student educational dynamics of power authority desire friendship open mindedness and resistance Envisioning Teaching and Learning of Teachers for Excellence and Equity in Education Xudong Zhu, Huan Song, 2021-08-14 This edited book is a collection of keynote speeches in the 3rd Global Teacher Education Summit in Beijing Normal University from October 14 to 16 2017 The speeches intend to raise international response in the field of teacher education to the enduringly changing education policy environment Multiple perspectives are needed in order to gain insights into teaching and teacher education for excellence and equity as well as disentangle from rigid inapplicable old paradigms This book on one hand provides typify global voices and on the other hand contributes Chinese stories to this field China s education manifests a tendency with stronger indigenous features related to the changing domestic climate and international geopolitical position Chapters included about teaching and teacher education in China can provide local evidence intelligence and relevance to global audience and even voice indigenous epistemes within the non Western platform This book aims to build such dialogs between global perspectives and Chinese insights for heteroglossia in content and methodology in the field of teaching and teacher education Qualitative Research Jurij Fikfak, Frane Adam, Detlef Garz, 2004-01-01 Pittsburgh Teachers Bulletin , 1920
