The Sellout:

The Sellout Paul Beatty, 2015-03-03 Raised by a single father a controversial sociologist at Riverside Community College the narrator spent his Los Angeles childhood as the subject in psychological studies classic experiments revised to include a racially charged twist He also grew up believing this pioneering work might result in a memoir that would solve their financial woes But when his father is killed in a shoot out with the police he realizes there never was a memoir All that s left is the bill for a drive thru funeral and some maudlin what ifs

The Sellout Perfection Learning Corporation, 2019 The Face of Terror, and the Other Plays ; The Sellout ; Af Ase Gbe 'jo Chima Okereke, 2003 Slavery and the Post-Black Imagination Bertram D. Ashe, Ilka Saal, 2020-01-06 Honorable Mention for the 2022 Modern Language Association Prize for an Edited Collection Interrogates how artists have created new ways to imagine the past of American slavery From Kara Walker s hellscape antebellum silhouettes to Paul Beatty s bizarre twist on slavery in The Sellout and from Colson Whitehead s literal Underground Railroad to Jordan Peele s body snatching Get Out this volume offers commentary on contemporary artistic works that present like musical deep cuts some challenging alternate takes on American slavery These artists deliberately confront and negotiate the psychic and representational legacies of slavery to imagine possibilities and change The essays in this volume explore the conceptions of freedom and blackness that undergird these narratives critically examining how artists growing up in the post Civil Rights era have nuanced slavery in a way that is distinctly different from the first wave of neo slave narratives that emerged from the Civil Rights and Black Power Movements Slavery and the Post Black Imagination positions post blackness as a productive category of analysis that brings into sharp focus recent developments in black cultural productions across various media These ten essays investigate how millennial black cultural productions trouble long held notions of blackness by challenging limiting scripts They interrogate political as well as formal interventions into established discourses to demonstrate how explorations of black identities frequently go hand in hand with the purposeful refiguring of slavery s prevailing tropes narratives and images A V Ethel Willis White Book

The Racial Unfamiliar John Brooks, 2022-08-30 The works of African American authors and artists are too often interpreted through the lens of authenticity They are scrutinized for positive or negative representations of Black people and Black culture or are assumed to communicate some truth about Black identity or the Black experience However many contemporary Black artists are creating works that cannot be slotted into such categories Their art resists interpretation in terms of conventional racial discourse instead they embrace opacity uncertainty and illegibility John Brooks examines a range of abstractionist experimental and genre defying works by Black writers and artists that challenge how audiences perceive and imagine race He argues that literature and visual art that exceed the confines of familiar conceptions of Black identity can upend received ideas about race and difference Considering photography by Roy DeCarava installation art by Kara Walker novels by Percival Everett and Paul Beatty drama by Suzan Lori Parks and poetry by Robin Coste Lewis Brooks pinpoints a shared aesthetic sensibility In their works the devices that typically make race feel familiar are instead used to estrange cultural assumptions about race Brooks contends that when artists confound expectations about racial representation the resulting disorientation reveals the incoherence of racial ideologies By showing how contemporary literature and art ask audiences to question what they think they know about race The Racial Unfamiliar offers a new way to understand African American cultural production

Another Day in the Colony Chelsea Watego, 2021-11-02 A ground breaking work and a call to arms that exposes the ongoing colonial violence experienced by First Nations people In this collection of deeply insightful and powerful essays Chelsea Watego examines the ongoing and daily racism faced by First Nations peoples in so called Australia Rather than offer yet another account of the Aboriginal problem she theorises a strategy for living in a society that has only ever imagined Indigenous peoples as destined to die out Drawing on her own experiences and observations of the operations of the colony she exposes the lies that settlers tell about Indigenous people In refusing such stories Chelsea narrates her own fierce personal sometimes funny sometimes anguished She speaks not of fighting back but of standing her ground against colonialism in academia in court and in the media It s a stance that takes its toll on relationships career prospects and even the body Yet when told to have hope Watego s response rings clear Fuck hope Be sovereign Literary and Cultural Representations of the Hinterlands Ewa Kębłowska-Ławniczak, Dominika Ferens, Katarzyna Nowak-McNeice, Marcin Tereszewski, 2023-12-22 This interdisciplinary collection explores the diverse relationships between the frequently ignored and inherently ambiguous hinterlands and their manifestations in literature and culture Moving away from perspectives that emphasize the marginality of hinterlands and present them as devoid of agency and cultural currency this collection assembles a series of original essays using various modes of engagement to reconceptualize hinterlands and highlight their semiotic complexity Apart from providing a reassessment of hinterlands in terms of their geocultural significance this book also explores hinterlands through such concepts as nostalgia heterotopia identity formation habitation and cognitive mapping with reference to a wide geographical field Literary and filmic revisions of familiar hinterlands such as the Australian outback Alberta prairie and Arizona desert are juxtaposed in this volume with representations of such little known European hinterlands as Lower Silesia and Ukraine and the complicated political dimension of First World War internment camps is investigated with regard to Kapuskasing Ontario Rural China and the Sussex Downs are examined here as writers retreats Inner city hinterlands in Haiti India Morocco and urban New Jersey take on new meaning when contrasted with the vast hinterlands of megacities like Johannesburg and Los Angeles The spectrum of diverse approaches to hinterlands helps to reinforce their multilayered and multivocal nature as spaces that defy clear categorization Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe s liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country s interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies
