Vietnam Flashbacks:

The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary Thomas W Benson, Brian J Snee, 2008-05-23 The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary explores the most visible and volatile element in the 2004 presidential campaign the partisan documentary film This collection of original critical essays by leading scholars and critics including Shawn J and Trevor Parry Giles Jennifer L Borda and Martin J Medhurst analyzes a selection of political documentaries that appeared during the 2004 election season The editors examine the new political documentary with the tools of rhetorical criticism combining close textual analysis with a consideration of the historical context and the production and reception of the films The essays address the distinctive rhetoric of the new political documentary with the films typically having been shot with relatively low budgets in video and using interviews and stock footage rather than observation of uncontrolled behavior The quality was often good enough and interest was sufficiently intense that the films were shown in theaters and on television which provided legitimacy and visibility before they were released soon afterwards on DVD and VHS and marketed on the Internet The volume reviews such films as Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 9 11 two refutations of Moore s film Fahrenhype 9 11 and Celsius 41 11 Unprecedented The 2000 Presidential Election and George W Bush Faith in the White House films that experimented with a variety of angles and rhetorics from a mix of comic disparagement and earnest confrontation to various emulations of traditional news and documentary voices The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary represents the continued transformation of American political discourse in a partisan and contentious time and showcases the independent voices and the political power brokers that struggled to find new ways to debate the status quo and employ surrogate independents to create a counterrhetoric can be traced to Volume 4 in the Series Trauma and Its Wake The Study and Treatment of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder edited by Charles R Figley This was the first attempt to generalize research and clinical findings among a wide variety of traumatic or catastrophic events towards a generalized view of traumatic and post traumatic stress reactions Chapters focused on the immediate and long term psychosocial consequences of exposure to one of many types of catastrophic events war rape natural disasters incest Other chapters focused on effective methods of treating or preventing stress reactions or disorders It is the first in a series of books that will review the latest innovations in theory research and treatment of post traumatic stress disorder PTSD caused by a wide variety of stressful life events The book you are reading is the second of this series of annually published volumes on PTSD within the Book Series No Hope for the Hopeless at Kings Park Jason Medina,2013-07-05 In this first book by Jason Medina we are given fabulously three intertwined stories that for the most part take place at the Kings Park Psychiatric Center a currently abandoned state hospital which was once home to thousands of insane and tortured souls The first of these tales takes place in the 1960s when the hospital used to be known as the Kings Park State Hospital It focuses around a suicidal adolescent girl named Amanda who is committed to the hospital's old adolescent cottages Over the next few years she experiences both the joys of friendship and the sorrows of loneliness as she struggles to adjust to her new life In the second story we are given a new version of an old Long Island urban legend about a murderous woman known only as Mary Hatchet Ever since Mary was committed to the hospital at the tender age of eleven after the brutal murders of her parents her thoughts and motive have remained a mystery Almost a decade later a twenty two year old Mary has gained the attention of two doctors who make it their mission to get into her mind at the risk of unleashing the demon she struggles to keep inside The final story takes place long after the hospital has been abandoned When a man wakes up with amnesia on the shore of the Long Island Sound near the decayed structures of the old hospital he begins a long journey that will take him back in time to his earliest forgotten memories and through a series of dreams and flashbacks until he remembers everything By that time he may wish he stayed with amnesia Vietnam Flashbacks Jim Villani,1984 Altered States of Consciousness in the Movies John C.
