Don't Cry For Us, Saigon Major (Retired) Steven E. Cook, 2019-02-27 The United States military did not lose the Vietnam War The South Vietnamese government lost the Vietnam War With many inaccurate books biased statements lack of understanding and facts I decided to write a Vietnamese history book with emphasis on the Second Indochina War This book will correct many of those misconceptions about the Vietnam War answer controversial questions and give readers a microcosm and basic dynamics of the Vietnam War I recorded and archived highlights of the Vietnam War and the accounts of American military heroes whose sacrifices and heroic exploits might otherwise be lost to history The poignant riveting and the gripping reality of war and the demons and misfortune of the Vietnam veterans will be depicted in the book This book is intended for a variety of audiences veterans family members gold star mothers organizations agencies clubs college students faculty and history buffs Search and destroy operations in South Vietnam will be described in comprehensive detail and why President Johnson later changed the name of search and destroy operations to reconnaissance in force This book will show that the worst atrocity of the Vietnam War occurred in the United States when America shunned and discriminated against its Vietnam War veterans and gold star mothers This book is a first person account of high school teenyboppers suddenly answering the call for duty and turning into elite combat warriors virtually overnight Vietnam War veterans saw and experienced horrific savage and direct combat repeatedly that humans aren't intended to see Testimonies of seasoned combat Airborne Infantry soldiers Pathfinders and Special Forces whose average age was twenty one will be depicted through empirical vignettes These first person vignettes will describe the carnage of firefights mortar attacks the stench of human decay and flesh torn and broken and the camaraderie and bonds of men at war Do not judge these warrior leader heroes unless you have walked a mile in their jungle boots through a jungle in a combat environment Remember once upon a time we were all like you Myths of the Vietnam War will be refuted rebutted and debunked Agent Orange and other
