Alchemy of Desire, Revolt & Violence Vishnu Patil, 2017-03-08 It is essential to set a balanced context for literary analysis amidst international national and regional conditions In terms of Indian perspectives it travels deep down to religion caste and cultural levels To understand any Indian phenomenon one needs to understand the diversity and its historical implications

Mahesh Elkunchwar as a notable Indian dramatist holds a key position in Indian literature due to his excellent presentation of Indian consciousness on stage. Desire, revolt, and violence are perhaps few of the most important issues in human relationships. The performance of the emotions on the stage receives special significance. The poststructuralist perspectives on Elkunchwar's plays by Vishnu Patil present a fresh insight into the study of Indian drama in particular and critical thinking about desire and violence in general. It becomes a fine interweaving of eastern and western thinking about sexuality and violence. He investigates and offers deconstructive analysis on incest relationships, extramarital affairs, rape, prostitution, homosexuality, love relationships as depicted in the plays like Desire in the Rocks, Garbo, etc. He examines acts of violence and revolt in a post-structuralist way especially in the light of ideas of post-Lacanian critic Slavoj Žižek. Revolt, however, is treated on both the levels, i.e. feminist and general level. The book continuously attempts to unveil the ideological forces functional under many regular social practices especially in the form of patriarchy, religion, and so on. It succeeds in doing so by combining views on the issues, desire and violence from ancient Indian contexts and its evolution through time. The textual references serve the purpose of setting a balanced review and investigation of relevance of certain ideas and sexual politics and it also helps to understand reasons and culminations of violent responses and politics responsible for its origin.

Decolonial Existence and Urban Sensibility Sayan Dey, 2019-10-01. The book Decolonial Existence and Urban Sensibility: A Study on Mahesh Elkunchwar meticulously reflects upon some of the selected translated plays of Marathi playwright Mahesh Elkunchwar. It revolves around the themes of decolonial existence and urban sensibility in contemporary India as portrayed in his plays with respect to post-independent urban existence, socio-cultural existence, and gender. The book also looks forward to establish a counterargument against the idealized and totalitarian definitions of West-centric existentialist philosophy and establish indigenous dimensions of decolonial existence within specific contexts. It dismantles the colonially structured existing binaries of urban/rural, ethical/unethical, and high culture/low culture through the diverse portrayal of human relationships in contemporary India and broadly addresses two intermingled perspectives. Firstly, it outlines the thematic and dramatic perspectives of the selected plays of Mahesh Elkunchwar, and secondly, it explores the multi-dimensional philosophical perspectives that encapsulate the theoretical latitude of decoloniality and urban sensibility.

Playwright at the Centre and Indian Psyche: An Expressional Confluence in Selected Plays of Mahesh Elkunchwar Dr. Sudhir Maruti Kakade, This book explores the expressionist elements found in four plays by Mahesh Elkunchwar: The Old Stone Mansion, Pond, Apocalypse, and An Actor's Exits. It examines how Elkunchwar used Expressionism to depict the Indian psyche in the context of Western dramatic influences. It also highlights how Indian playwrights like Elkunchwar were inspired by European expressionism, contributing to the evolution of postmodern Indian drama.
