Wailing Monkey Embracing Tree:

Sexual Life in Ancient China R.H. van Gulik, 2021-10-01 In 1961 Robert van Gulik published his pioneering overview of Sexual Life in Ancient China This edition of the work is preceded by an elaborate introduction by Paul Rakita Goldin assessing the value of Van Gulik s volume the subject itself and its author The introduction is followed by an extensive and up to date bibliography on the subject which guides the modern reader in the literature on the field which appeared after the publication of Van Gulik s volume One of the criticisms in 1961 regarded the Latin translations of passages deemed too explicit by Van Gulik In this 2002 edition all Latin has for the first time been translated into unambiguous English thus making the full text widely available to an academic audience Wailing Monkey Embracing a Tree Penelope Shuttle, 1973 The title according to the blurb is the Chinese name of a sexual position and the novel itself is a logophagaic adventure a dark word drunk exploration of emotional and sexual passions presented in lyrical often nonsensical image driven mini chapters of vivid swooning sometimes ludicrous pretentious always invigorating prose Sexual Life in Ancient China en India Gulik, 2023-07-24 The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, 2009-09-24 The Oxford Companion to English Literature has long been established as the leading reference resource for students teachers scholars and general readers of English literature It provides unrivalled coverage of all aspects of English literature from writers their works and the historical and cultural context in which they wrote to critics literary theory and allusions For the seventh edition the Companion has been thoroughly revised and updated to meet the needs and concerns of today s students and general readers Over 1 000 new entries have been added ranging from new writers Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Patrick Marber David Mitchell Arundhati Roy to increased coverage of writers and literary movements from around the world Coverage of American literature has been substantially increased with new entries on writers such as Cormac McCarthy and Amy Tan and on movements and publications Contextual and historical coverage has also been expanded with new entries on European history and culture post colonial literature as well as writers and literary movements from around the world that have influenced English literature The Companion has always been a quick and dependable source of reference for students and the new edition confirms its pre eminent role as the go to resource of first choice All entries have been reviewed and details of new works biographies and criticism have been brought right up to date So also has coverage of the themes approaches and concepts encountered by students today from terms to articles on literary theory and theorists There is increased coverage of writers from around the world as well as from Ireland Scotland and Wales and of contextual topics including film and television music and art Cross referencing has been thoroughly updated with stronger linking from writers to thematic and conceptual entries Meanwhile coverage of popular genres such as children s literature science fiction biography reportage crime fiction fantasy or travel literature has been increased substantially with new entries on writers from Philip Pullman to Anne Frank and from Anais Nin to Douglas Adams The seventh edition of this classic Companion now under the editorship of Dinah Birch assisted by a team of 28 distinguished associate editors and over 150 contributors ensures that it retains its status as the most authoritative informative and accessible guide to literature available British Working Class women authors (born before 1962) a list Stefan Szczelkun ,2025-06-07 A collection of Wikipedia articles edited reformatted and with additions In chronological order References and sections on non literary activity are sometimes omitted hopefully not to the point of misrepresenting the author which might include feminist or political activism To my surprise the biographical material on Wikipedia was sometimes mesmerising although it was uneven Where there were gaps I have tried to fill them from other sources Refer back to the wikipedia articles for more context and references in some cases and if you have a verified source of information please update the Wikipedia article Wikipedia is published under a creative commons licence So this compilation also carries a creative commons licence Introduction Looking through Sarah Richardson s Writing on the Line 1996 I was struck by how many of the working class women writers were from North America and how many more were poets Howard Slater had made a list of British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there s plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel Ursula, Under Ingrid Hill,2004-01-01 Ursula Wong a racially mixed child falls down a mine shaft and rescue efforts go on against a background of stories about her remarkable ancestors International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Eyes Like Butterflies Terence E. R. Hodgson,2006 Publisher description Redgrove's Wife Penelope Shuttle,2006 Penelope Shuttle s latest collection Redgrove s Wife is a book of lament and celebration Its focus is the life and death of her husband the poet Peter Redgrove coupled with the loss of her father Here grief depression and ageing are confronted with painful directness but transformed into life affirming and redemptive poetry Other poems written over the same five year period are inspired by a wide variety of subjects from Cornish history and landscape to time weather spiders and postal regulations Some draw on myth and dream to reinvent reality while others take surprising liberties with language itself Redgrove s Wife offers an extraordinary range of different kinds of poetry both sensuous and ceremonial elegiac and erotic visionary and playful Penelope Shuttle writes Despite Peter's worsening health many of the poems take as their task the search for a renewal of life during difficult circumstances How to go on loving the world which is what a poet is for when it deals you severe blows forcing you to give up much of what gives life its energy and delight My years as a carer for Peter and the sadness of witnessing his decline into frailty due to a combination of Parkinson's arthritis and diabetes were a time when I fought off depression and anger not always successfully but turned to poetry as channel for and transformer of such emotions After Peter died it was poetry that provided me with the proper consolations of human loneliness New Poems, 1976 The Concise Oxford Chronology of English Literature Michael Cox, 2005 The Concise Oxford Chronology of English Literature presents a comprehensive year by year digest of 15 000 significant and representative works of literature published in English by British authors from 1474 to the present day The greats sit alongside long forgotten gems the trivial the inspirational and the unusual all equally worthy of remembrance An ideal resource for students and academics of English literature The main chronology is supplemented by three indexes An author index allows readers to view the literary output of any given author in chronological order an index of periodicals gives a short overview of periodicals published during the period covered and there is also an index of anonymous titles This edition has been updated to include works of literature from 2002 and 2003 The Listener, 1973 The Terrors of Dr. Treviles Peter Redgrove, Penelope Shuttle, 1974 The Best of Peter Redgrove's Poetry Peter Redgrove, 2007 This volume gathers together poetry and prose from every stage of Peter Redgrove's career and every book It includes pieces that have only appeared in small presses and magazines and in uncollected form Chung-kuo Ku Tai Fang Nei K'ao Robert Hans van Gulik, 1961 The Oxford Companion to English Literature Margaret Drabble, 2006 This text has now been revised again to incorporate the latest developments for instance the current success of children's and crossover literature such as that of J K Rowling and Philip Pullman However the Companion also remains faithful to Sir Paul Harvey's original vision of an authoritative work placing English literature in its widest context No other volume offers such extensive exploration of the classical roots of English literature and the European authors and works that influenced its development The appendices have also been updated the winners of the major literary awards and the chronology spanning a thousand years of English literature from Beowulf to Small Island Informed by the latest scholarly thinking and comprehensively cross referenced to guide the reader to topics of related interest the revised 6th edition reaffirms the pre-eminence of the Companion as the best available single volume guide to English literature BOOK JACKET The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996-09-26 This is a unique new reference book to English language writers and writing throughout the present century in all major genres and from all around the world from Joseph Conrad to Will Self Virginia Woolf to David Mamet Ezra Pound to Peter Carey James Joyce to Amy Tan The survivors of the Victorian age who feature in The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Literature in English writers such as Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner
