Ginny Hogan, 2019-09-10. If there's one thing we can agree on in a post-Trump America, it's that sexism exists. While there are myriad books on female friendship in the marketplace, Toxic Femininity is the first book on the special relationship between female coworkers and gender dynamics in the workplace to hit the market in a comedic, gifty way. Talented humorist Ginny Hogan explores themes of sexism, workplace gender dynamics, and the challenges facing women at work, particularly in STEM fields, with disarming wit. Toxic Femininity includes fun short pieces such as "I'm Not A Sexist, I Also Ask My Male Colleagues If They're Menstruating" and "How Silicon Valley Created The Perfect Meritocracy If You Specifically Happen To Be A Young, Straight, Well-Educated White Man," true/false and multiple-choice quizzes including "Are You Too Aggressive?" or "Are You Politely Stating Your Opinion?" and "Are You a True Feminist? A Male Feminist? A Feminist Just to Get Laid?" or "A Loaf of Bread," and even some surrealist essays such as "A Woman From The Year 3018 Visits a Tech Startup" and "The Noise-Canceling Headphones Lament." Toxic Femininity is a book that can be enjoyed in little sips or in one long drink. The variety of the pieces and the illustrations make a lovely and gifty package. This product is perfect for a mentor encouraging her mentees, a big sister preparing her little sister for the workplace, or shoring up your best friend after a rough day. A conversation piece as much as a gift, the humorous nature of the work makes it possible to face topics that can be difficult to tackle head-on, and we hope that this book will be able to serve not just as a gift but as a jumping-off point for those hard-to-have conversations that are a part of every workplace environment. The Best Part of Prison

Jesse Crosson, 2026-03-10. An unvarnished, deeply human account of one man's time in prison and his unexpected journey to healing, accountability, transformation, and redemption. At 18, Jesse Crosson was considered a lost cause. Strung out on drugs, he committed a robbery and later a nonfatal shooting. For those choices, he was sentenced to 32 years, nearly twice as long as the maximum recommended by sentencing guidelines. No one expected his story to end well. But for Jesse, prison was not the end. It became the beginning of a long path toward redemption. In The Best Part of Prison, Jesse reveals how a system meant to rehabilitate so often alienates and destroys, describing both the daily brutality of incarceration and the added cruelty of surviving the

COVID 19 pandemic behind bars Across four prisons shoulder to shoulder with people convicted of every imaginable crime Jesse anticipated only the worst Instead he discovered teachers friends trauma survivors striving to heal victims seeking repair and even hardened lifers who became unlikely mentors Within that crucible he confronted what it means to cause harm to make amends and to rediscover humanity Now a pardoned advocate for criminal justice reform and the founder of the Second Chancer Foundation Jesse shares a story that exposes the inequity of today s justice system champions rehabilitation and restorative justice and demonstrates the redemptive power of accountability education and human connection Electric and deeply felt from the slam of a cell door to the awe of seeing the night sky after 19 years The Best Part of Prison reminds us that second chances are always possible and that none of us are defined solely by our worst moments
