Handbook features over 50 contributions from leading and upcoming academics from around the globe. The revised and new chapters consider vital questions by analyzing texts, audience and institutions including media and its effects on children's mental health, children and the internet of toys, media and digital inequalities, news and citizenship in the aftermath of COVID-19. The Handbook's interdisciplinary approach and comprehensive current and international scope make it an authoritative state-of-the-art guide to the field of children's media studies. It will be indispensable for media scholars and professionals, policy makers, educators and parents.

Handbook of the Metaverse Pan Hui, Peng Yuan Zhou, Lik-Hang Lee, Tristan Braud, 2026-01-08. The metaverse is sweeping the globe thanks to its fundamentally innovative concepts of physical, virtual, blended reality and years of industrial efforts on relevant hardware development. It is yet unclear what the metaverse is, what technologies it relies on and what concern the society should care about since it is such a huge ecosystem with nearly unlimited possibilities. The book aims to provide a comprehensive study on the metaverse including its development and ecosystem and detailed descriptions of multiple key technologies with their challenges and state-of-the-art solutions. Finally, it concludes with several important societal issues the metaverse may raise including concerns and suggestions. The book targets at providing understandable introductions to varied aspects of the metaverse that may appear new to common audiences and deep insights into a number of key directions for related professionals. The purpose of the book is to help readers better understand the concept and current status of metaverse while inspiring relevant readers or institutes to spot interesting and challenging topics to follow.

Research Handbook on the Metaverse and Law Larry A. DiMatteo, Michel Cannarsa, 2024-08-06. This Research Handbook analyses the role of law in a universe fractured by new disruptive technologies such as metaverse platforms. Contributing authors explore how the law will adapt as new dimensions of the metaverse are introduced to issues such as intellectual property rights, e-commerce, NFTs and cryptocurrencies, data privacy, contract law as well as human rights, consumer law and criminal law. The abuse and manipulation of users is studied in several contributions.

Routledge Handbook on Transnational Commercial Law Bruno Zeller, Camilla Baasch Andersen, 2025-02-21. This handbook edited by Zeller and Andersen is an indispensable contribution to the field of transnational commercial law. With an introduction by Sir Roy Goode, this book presents perspectives on legal issues of international sales transactions as perceived by world-leading experts, exposing pragmatic and modern aspects of everything from drafting to uniform laws to dispute resolution. The book divides itself between fundamental knowledge of transnational commercial law, e.g. chapters on forum shopping, CISG, Cape Town Convention etc. and current and topical developments, e.g. chapters on blockchain, smart contracts, metaverse, digital assets etc. International or transnational trade during the past twenty years has become more and more important, outstripping domestic trade as a hallmark of economic success. Model laws developed by the United Nations and other international bodies are now being transplanted or ratified by countries, so a translational element must always be considered as part of any choice of law. Addressing a global audience as the instruments dealt with herein apply to many states in different regions this handbook aims not only at an undergraduate and graduate student audience but also will interest professional lawyers
