Smallholder Agriculture Peter B. R. Hazell,Atiqur Rahman,2014-03-06 The majority of the poor and hungry people in the world live on small farms and struggle to subsist on too little land with low input low yield technologies At the same time many other smallholders are successfully intensifying and succeeding as farm businesses often in combination with diversification into off farm sources of income This book examines the growing divergence between subsistence and business oriented small farms and discusses how this divergence has been impacted by population growth trends in farm size distribution urbanization off farm income diversification and the globalization of agricultural value chains It finds that policy makers need to differentiate more sharply between different types of small farms than they did in the past both in terms of their potential contributions towards achieving national economic growth poverty alleviation and food security goals and the types of assistance they need The book distinguishes between smallholders that are business oriented subsistence oriented and at various stages of transition to the non farm economy and discusses strategies appropriate for assisting each type The book draws on a wealth of recent experience at IFAD and elsewhere to help identify best practice approaches Build It!

Joe Jacobs,2008-04-01 Using recycled materials where ever possible Build It provides step by step instructions for over 50 DIY projects for both inside and outside the home farm Former engineer Joe Jacobs guides you through the equipment the tools the materials and the plans to provide you with inspiration and plenty of ideas The projects include a polytunnel beehives chicken arks and runs gates hurdles and fencing cloches dog kennel feed bins a heat pump installation a heated orphan lamb feeder incubator nesting boxes and renewable energy projects including solar panels and plenty more making this an essential book for any keen DIY enthusiast with a basic knowledge of construction Asian Smallholders in Comparative Perspective Eric Thompson,Jamie Gillen,Jonathan Rigg,2025-10-01 Asian Smallholders in Comparative Perspective provides the first multicountry inter disciplinary analysis of the single most important social and economic formation in the Asian countryside the smallholder Based on ten core country chapters the volume describes and explains the persistence transformations functioning and future of the smallholder and smallholdings across East and Southeast Asia As well as providing a source book for scholars working on agrarian change in the region it also engages with a number of key current areas of debate including the nature and direction of the agrarian transition in Asia and its distinctiveness vis vis transitions in the global North the persistence of the smallholder notwithstanding deep and rapid structural change and the question of the efficiency and productivity of smallholder based farming set against concerns over global and national food security Global food security Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development

Committee,2013-06-04 The International Development Committee calls for concerted action to curb food wastage in the UK and for expansion of DFID s bilateral nutrition programmes with a particular focus on pregnancy and early years as part of wider efforts to improve global food security There is scope for the Government to launch a national consumer campaign to reduce domestic food waste also setting national targets to curb food waste within the UK food production and retail sectors Agriculturally produced biofuels are having a major detrimental impact on global food security by driving higher and more volatile food prices EU targets requiring 10 per cent of transport energy to be drawn from renewable sources by 2020 are likely to cause dramatic food price increases and the Government should revise its domestic Renewable Transport Fuel Obligation to specifically exclude agriculturally produced biofuels Looking at the impact of rising world population the Committee praises DFID s significant efforts to meet the considerable unmet need for contraception in many developing nations and urges the UK government to maintain a keen focus on women s reproductive rights within its development assistance programmes MPs also flag the longer term barriers to development posed by systematic undernutrition The Committee expresses concern that large corporations are buying up large areas of land in many developing countries previously farmed by smallholders UK domiciled corporations should be required to be transparent about land deals Lastly MPs focus on the key role that smallholder farmers will play in feeding a growing global population and in reducing rural poverty

Prosperity or Predicament? Decoding Certification Challenges in Malaysia's Palm Oil Industry Serina Rahman, Lee Poh Onn, 2024-03-22 Oil palm was brought to Malaysia from West Africa as part of British colonial agricultural development initiatives but the refining of crude palm oil only began in the 1970s as part of the move by the Malaysian government to industrialize the country s agrarian economy Malaysia is the world s second largest producer of palm oil after Indonesia Both countries account for about 85 per cent of total exports Incidentally smallholders produce about 40 per cent of the total output of palm oil in Malaysia The palm oil industry is mired in controversy Global campaigns originating in Europe and the US have branded the crop the biggest cause of deforestation with proposed bans to follow in December 2024 Certification has been proposed as the solution to address gaps in sustainability Sabah is used as an illustrative case study of an effective approach for statewide certification using both the Malaysian Sustainable Palm Oil MSPO and Roundtable for Sustainable Palm Oil RSPO schemes

Tobacco, Transformation and Development Dilemmas from Central Africa Martin Prowse, Paul Grassin, 2019-12-10 This book takes the reader through the expansion restructuring and possible salvation of Malawi s main industry tobacco Malawi has been dependent on tobacco exports for a century but now with demand for Malawian tobacco declining fast the country needs to diversify rapidly The authors combine an innovative range of theory and methods to provide a comprehensive and incisive analysis of the dilemmas faced by countries which still rely on a limited number of agricultural commodities in the 21st century This work will be ideal for scholars and researchers interested in political economy and African development

study comprises a review of oil palm development and management across landscapes in the tropics Seven countries have been selected for detailed analysis using surveys of the current literature mainly spanning the last fifteen years Indonesia and Malaysia are the obvious leaders in terms of area planted and levels of production and export but also in literature generated on social and environmental challenges In Latin America Colombia is the dominant producer with oil palm expanding in disparate landscapes with a strong focus on palm oil based biodiesel and small scale growers and companies in Peru and Brazil offer contrasting ways of inserting oil palm into the Amazon Nigeria and Cameroon represent African nations with traditional groves and old plantations in which foreign land grabs to establish new oil palm have recently occurred

Palaeolandscapes in Archaeology Mike T. Carson,2021-11-29 What can we learn about the ancient landscapes of our world and how can those lessons improve our future in the landscapes that we all inhabit Those questions are addressed in this book through a practical framework of concepts and methods combined with detailed case studies around the world The chapters explore the range of physical and social attributes that have shaped and re shaped our landscapes through time International authors contributed the latest results of investigating ancient landscapes or palaeolandscapes in diverse settings of tropical forests deserts river deltas remote islands coastal zones and continental interiors The case studies embrace a broadly accommodating approach of combining archaeological evidence with other avenues of research in earth sciences biology and social relations Individually and in concert the chapters offer new perspectives on what the world s palaeolandscapes looked like how people lived in these places and how communities have engaged with long term change in their natural and cultural environments through successive centuries and millennia The lessons are paramount for building responsible strategies and policies today and into the future noting that many of these issues from the past have gained more urgency today This book reaches across archaeology ecology geography and other studies of human environment relations that will appeal to general readers Specialists and students in these fields will find extra value in the primary datasets and in the new ideas and perspectives Furthermore this book provides unique examples from the past toward understanding the workings of sustainable landscape systems Smallholders and Export Tree Crops in Papua New Guinea ,1987
