Smalltown Memorials:

Smalltown Memorials Geoff Page, 1975      A Memorial of the Town of Hampstead, New Hampshire, 1899
Memorials of Maine Augustus Freedom Moulton, 1916      A Memorial of the Town of Hampstead, New Hampshire
Harriette Eliza Noyes, 1903      The prime minister's potato and other essays Anne-Marie Condé, 2025-06-03 A curator's journey to uncover the stories behind everyday objects and preserve history for the common good After thirty years confined within museum walls a restless history curator steps out for air In this book of essays Anne Marie Cond grants herself freedom to ask fresh questions about the significance of objects and places within the lives of ordinary people Cemeteries junk shops war memorials Stones and scraps and scrawls These are where this author goes for inspiration Whether it's a wet greasy pavement in Hobart or a message in chalk in Sydney Cond can coax a historical narrative out of the most meagre sources Along the way she asks why anyone would offer a potato as a gift to a prime minister How could this humble vegetable help us think about Australia's past Throughout Cond casts a patient and gently curious gaze over her subjects Many writers are fascinated by unrecorded lives but where there are records Cond is sure to find them      Monuments, Tablets and Other Memorials Erected in Massachusetts to Commemorate the Service of Her Sons in the War of the Rebellion, 1861-1865 ... Alfred Seelye Roe, 1910      New Hampshire War Monuments: The Stories Behind the Stones Kathleen D. Bailey and Sheila R. Bailey, 2022 A father's grief for his son A daughter's grief for her father And a love story that crossed continents and an ocean coming to rest in a tiny New Hampshire town This small state has more than enough heart sending men and women to fight for freedom around the world New Hampshire military personnel have distinguished themselves in every war from the French and Indian War to the dusty mountains of Afghanistan The Granite State continues to honor their sacrifices memorializing their stories in statues bridges buildings and highways Join Kathleen and Sheila Bailey as they recount the stories behind the stones      Town & County Edition of The American City, 1916      "Ted and Tommy" Graham Ewen Eagleton, 2015-03-11 Halt Who goes there Three times with gun in hand the old home guard fellow demanded an answer I said I wanted to join the air force I can remember him saying Are you sure you want to I suppose he felt a bit fatherly you know here was another young girl going into that terrible place August 1939 and war clouds looming May Cameron Tommy approached the Balloon Station near Birmingham England harbouring ideas of becoming an air ace On the other side of the world in Sydney Australia Ted accompanied a workmate to night classes conducted by the Empire Air Training Scheme half expecting that if he were accepted into the air force his previous job would have him typecast for ground crew In the end neither Tommy nor Ted got quite what they bargained for But they did find each other and so took the first steps on another very different adventure This is the story of Ted and Tommy of their formative years of their coming together in wartime Britain Ted the Australian flying officer or something of 466 Squadron and Tommy the Scottish lass in the control tower and of the struggle they later came to share with fellow ex servicemen to regain their lives and to raise a family in the changing circumstances of postwar Australia This then is hagiography a love story the story of my parents Ted and Tommy Eagleton lest we forget

E J W Gibb Memorial Series ,1928      Sacred Places K. S. Inglis,Jan Brazier,2008

Memorials to Australian participation in wars abound in our landscape From Melbourne s huge Shrine of Remembrance to the modest marble soldier obelisk or memorial hall in suburb and country town they mourn and honour Australians who have served and died for their country Surprisingly they have largely escaped scrutiny Ken Inglis argues that the imagery rituals and rhetoric generated around memorials constitute a civil religion a cult of ANZAC Sacred Places traces three elements which converged to create the cult the special place of war in the European mind when nationalism was at its zenith the colonial condition and the death of so many young men in distant battle which impelled the bereaved to make substitutes for the graves of which history had deprived them The war memorial movement attracted conflict as well as commitment Inglis looks at uneasy acceptance even rejection of the cult by socialists pacifists feminists and some Christians and at its virtual exclusion of Aborigines He suggests that between 1918 and 1939 the making dedication and use of memorials enhanced the power of the right in Australian public life Finally he examines a paradox Why as Australia s wars recede in public and private memory and as a once British Australia becomes multicultural have the memorials and what they stand for become more cherished than ever Sacred Places spans war religion politics language and the visual arts Ken Inglis has distilled new cultural understandings from a familiar landscape
