Spilsburys Album:

Spilsbury's Album Jim Spilsbury, 1990 Spilsbury has a raconteur's eye for an anecdote a keen sense of history an earthy sense of humour and a genuine interest in the people who lived and worked on the coast BC Studies Vanishing British Columbia Michael Kluckner, 2011-11-01 The old buildings and historic places of British Columbia form a kind of roadside memory a tangible link with stories of settlement change and abandonment that reflect the great themes of our history With small towns declining and old rural properties changing so little of the history of these places has been recorded in museums or archives and so much of it may disappear as families disperse and memories dim More than a decade ago Michael Kluckner began painting these dots on his personal map of the province in a watercolour sketchbook In 1999 after he put a few of the sketches on his website a network of correspondents emerged that eventually led him to the family letters photo albums and memories all from a disappearing era of the province Vanishing British Columbia is a record of these places and the stories they tell It combines engaging and insightful historical commentary with over 160 of the author's original paintings It has an exceptional assortment of historic imagery including old postcards architectural plans and photographs The study of roadside memory demonstrates the visceral connection that people especially those who are part of the rural to urban diaspora of modern times have for the sites of their family memories On a grander scale this approach leads to a broader understanding of more abstract historical themes and of the province's history and culture It also presents a compelling argument for stewardship of regional history in the face of urbanization and globalization

The Royal Fjord Ray Phillips, 2015-05-02 The most accessible and popular of British Columbia's great scenic fjords Jervis Inlet punches 60 kilometres into the Coast Mountains a day's cruising north of Vancouver It deserves to be called the Royal Fjord on two counts the long zigzagging watercourse is comprised of four segments all with royal names Prince of Wales Reach Princess Royal Reach Queen's Reach and Princess Louisa Inlet and second the inlet possesses a scenic majesty that has made it one of the prime boating destinations on the Inside Passage Author Earle Stanley Gardner was so moved by the beauty of Jervis Inlet that he penned There is no scenery in the world that can beat it Not that I've seen the rest of the world I don't need to Almost deserted now except for Young Life's Malibu Club youth summer camp Jervis Inlet was once the home of large Sechelt Nation villages and later of innumerable homesteads logging camps and fishing communities and even the occasional hangout of golden age Hollywood stars That colourful past comes to life again in this new book by Ray Phillips who grew up in the area and descended from local pioneers Featuring original photos and the rough hewn memories of some of those early inhabitants along with personal accounts by the author and his father The Royal Fjord makes fascinating reading and fills an important gap in the written history of the BC coast
