Spirit Cabinet:

Conjuring the Spirit World George H. Schwartz, Tedi Asher, Christopher Jones, Lan Morgan, Tony Oursler, Jennifer Lemmer Posey, Mark Schwartz, 2024-09-03 Posters, photography and objects from the height of Spiritualism and the history of magic gain renewed power when seen through today's lens. The human desire to connect with the dead since the mid 19th century gave rise to a fascination with the supernatural and the magical. Mediums and magicians from Harry Houdini, Margery the Medium, Howard Thurston and the Fox Sisters offered communication with the departed at seances and magic shows, two interrelated forms of popular culture that relied heavily on illusions and stagecraft. This is the first illustrated volume to gather the art and objects that made medium and magician performances iconic during the Spiritualism movement and beyond, a time when people actively debated and wondered: can spirits return? An international selection of paintings, photographs, posters, stage apparatuses, film, publications and other objects reveal how audiences were entranced and mystified by these experiential performances, captivating willing believers and garnering skeptics as they navigated the intersecting realms of science and spirituality. From the origins of the iconic Ouija board to spirit photography, this book is a treasure trove.

The Spirit Cabinet Paul Quarrington, 2001-04 After a long, slow climb out of the strip clubs of Europe, Jurgen and Rudolfo have hit the big time in Las Vegas, headlining a magic act as slick as their own buffed and usually half-naked bodies. Rudolfo is content orchestrating the spectacle and attempting to twin his soul with Jurgen's. But Jurgen hungers for more and finds it in a mysterious collection of magician's paraphernalia that once belonged to Harry Houdini. With the knowledge he finds there and his own faith in the unknown, Jurgen becomes the miracle worker of the Las Vegas strip. Darkly comic, deeply sad and always ironic. Library Journal The Spirit Cabinet takes dead aim at the place within us that yearns for miracles. It is not a book about magicians and their pursuit of magic, wrote Alan Beaton in The National Post; it is a book about human beings and their pursuit of faith.

Calling the Spirits Lisa Morton, 2022-10-10 From Halloween expert Morton, a level-headed and entertaining history of our desire and attempts to hold conversations with the dead. Calling the Spirits investigates the eerie history of our conversations with the dead, from necromancy in Homer's Odyssey to the emergence of Spiritualism when Victorians were entranced by mediums and the seance was born. Among our cast are the Fox sisters, teenagers surrounded by spirit rappings; Daniel Dunglas Home, the greatest medium of all time; Houdini and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, whose unlikely friendship was forged, then riven by the afterlife; and Helen Duncan, the medium whose trial in 1944 for witchcraft proved more popular to the public than news about the war. The book also considers Ouija boards, modern psychics and paranormal investigations and is illustrated with engravings, fine art from beyond and photographs. Hugely entertaining, it begs the question: is anybody there?
