The Spirit and Structure of German Fascism Robert A. Brady,1937 The Spirit and Structure of German Fascism, by Robert A. Brady,... with a Foreword By... H. J. Laski Robert A. Brady,1937 Essays in Political Economy
Harold A. Innis,1978-12-15 This volume of essays in Political Science is a tribute to the character and work of Professor Edward Johns Urwick who in June 1937 retired under the age limit from the chair of Political Economy in the University of Toronto It is the first volume of a series in Political Economy to be published by the Maurice Cody Foundation and the University of Toronto Press It includes articles written by colleagues of Professor Urwick in the Department of Political Economy on subjects in which they had special interest and articles which are summaries of work done by holders of the Maurice Cody Fellowship since its establishment in 1928 By a happy coincidence this volume is issued fifty years after the chair in Political Economy was founded Veiled Power Doreen Lustig,2020-05-27 Veiled Power conducts a thorough historical study of the relationship between international law and business corporations It chronicles the emergence of the contemporary legal architecture for corporations in international law between 1886 and 1981 Doreen Lustig traces the relationship between two legal veils the sovereign veil of the state and the corporate veil of the company The interplay between these two veils constitutes the conceptual framework this book offers for the legal analysis of corporations in international law By weaving together five in depth case studies Firestone in Liberia the Industrialist Trials at Nuremberg the Anglo Iranian Oil Company Barcelona Traction and the emergence of the international investment law regime a variety of contexts are covered including international criminal law human rights natural resources and the multinational corporation as a subject of regulatory concern Together these case studies offer a multifaceted account of the history of corporations in international law over time The book seeks to demonstrate the facilitative role of international law in shaping and limiting the scope of responsibility of the private business corporation from the late nineteenth century and throughout the twentieth century Ultimately Lustig suggests that contrary to the prevailing belief that international law failed to adequately regulate private corporations there is a history of close engagement between the two that allowed corporations to exert influence under a variety of legal regimes while obscuring their agency The Great Lie F. Flagg Taylor,2023-10-03 The Most Insightful and Profound Reflections on Tyranny Totalitarianism was the dominant phenomenon of the twentieth century Deeply troubling questions endure regarding the nature of such tyrannical regimes What enabled human beings to carry out such horrific crimes against their fellow man What does the endurance of Communism reveal about human liberty Why did human beings suffer rule by ideological lies for so long and what kept them open to the truth What are we to make of the relationship between totalitarianism and the foundational principles of democratic modernity. Some of the greatest minds of the twentieth century sought answers to these haunting questions. Now for the first time ever their incisive and profound reflections on totalitarianism have been brought together in one book. The Great Lie showcases the insights of such giants as Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, Vaclav Havel, Hannah Arendt, Eric Voegelin, Czeslaw Milosz, Leo Strauss, and Raymond Aron, along with neglected but important thinkers such as Waldemar Gurian, Aurel Kolnai, Leszek Kolakowski, Pierre Manent, Claude Lefort, and Chantal Delsol. The brilliant essays in this volume illuminate the very nature of totalitarian regimes and the monstrous ideology that is their defining feature. The Great Lie allows readers to make sense of political evil and how it can attract so many people into its ideological fold. This is not a matter of mere academic interest in an age when we confront totalitarianism in such regimes as North Korea and Cuba, and arguably in radical Islamist movements.

Yet the dark places are the centre, claims George Steiner in The Bluebird's Castle. Any attempt to analyze rationally the predominating barbaric phenomenon of the 20th century, namely the Holocaust and its Fascist background, challenges the limits of human understanding. The phenomenon of the Holocaust is a consequence of these dark places where, again in Steiner's words, we have passed out of the major order and symmetries of Western civilization. A final understanding of the theme is beyond the limits of rationality and may also be viewed in the light of Adorno's 'no poetry after Auschwitz'. Nevertheless, the need to attempt reflective and creative work on this topic continues. The aim of the book is to study the relationship between ideology and myth as they function diversely in Fascist and Antifascist drama. All the plays discussed are constructed as a paradigmatic constellation between myth and ideology, coordinated by a central and homogeneous political intent. The difference between them lies in their Fascist or Antifascist attitude. The plays analyzed were chosen for the treatment of a common thematic: Ur-myth, the post-figuration of the return of the prodigal son, and the story of the crucifixion from the New Testament. The prodigal cluster includes plays by Franz Theodor Csokor, Ernst Wiechert, and Max Frisch; the sacrificial cluster, plays by Otto Erler, Rainer Werner Fassbinder, and George Tabori. As an introductory analysis, the theme of the artist and his mission is treated in two plays written in the pre-National Socialist period: Der Einsame and Ein Menschenuntergang by Hanns Johst, and Bertold Brecht's reaction to this play in Baal. A final analysis deals with the fusion of mythologems and ideologems, as demonstrated in two plays dealing with the New Myth of Germania by Richard Euttinger and Heiner Müller: Nazis and Workers: National Socialist Appeals to German Labor, 1919-1933 Max H. Kele, 1972. Monograph on the historical appeal of the Nazi political party in Germany to the working class during the period from 1919 to 1933, examines the propaganda, social theories, and socialist labour policies through which the party strove to win the workers' support and comments on Nazi politicians political leadership nationalism etc Bibliography pp 219 to 237 and references A History of the American People Volume II Harry J. Carman and Harold C. Syrett,1952 A History of the American People Harry James Carman,Harold Coffin Syrett,1952 Living Age ... ,1937
