Perception and the Internal Senses Juhana Toivanen, 2013-05-15 In Perception and the Internal Senses Juhana Toivanen advances a detailed philosophical reconstruction of Peter of John Olivi's ca 1248-98 conception of the cognitive psychology of the sensitive i.e. animal soul Like most medieval philosophers Olivi thought that higher animals and human beings have many psychological capacities in common The book analyses these capacities by concentrating on Olivi's conception of the metaphysics of the soul his theory of perception and his views about the post sensory cognitive power which medieval philosophers called the internal senses Being the first monograph in English that concentrates on Olivi's philosophical psychology Perception and the Internal Senses enables us to understand better medieval ideas concerning animal psychology and the human animal boundary

Spirituality, Diversion, and Decadence Peter Higbie Van Ness, 1992-01-01 This book presents a philosophical rethinking of the meaning and nature of spiritual discipline It offers a new way of describing and justifying practices like praying meditating fasting and yoga and it provides an innovative case for their contemporary importance Spiritual discipline is especially effective at combatting Pascalian diversion the pursuit of activities that occupy the mind just enough to avoid thinking about important things and Nietzschean decadence the proclivity for extirpating instinctive drives instead of satisfying or sublimating them In addition to overcoming diversion and decadence in contemporary consumerist culture VanNess recommends spiritual discipline as a means of political resistance to powerful institutions which seek to exercise social control in democratic societies by promulgating addictive patterns of consumption Finally he argues that regimens of spiritual discipline can serve healthful and liberating purposes and generally promote fullness of life only insofar as they are shaped by an ethos of intellectual criticism and aesthetic experimentation
