Spiritual Food for Victorious Living John Osteen,1985-09 That I Might Know Him Nancy Taylor Tate,2022-11-10 OK
you are saved now what The Lord desires that we move on toward spiritual maturity But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ 2 Peter 3 18 In her Spiritual Food for Spiritual Growth series Nancy Taylor Tate teaches from the scriptures about the most important matters of spiritual growth developing a close personal relationship with God and allowing Him to lead us into a victorious life by walking in His ways That I Might Know Him the first book is focused on building an intimate loving personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ the core of a meaningful spiritual life Growing in that relationship is our first priority Day by day as we learn to live in His presence we are brought into an identification with who He is and with His purposes The shift of focus from what we do to what we are becoming as we do presents a meaningful and fruitful lifestyle filled with joy expectation hope and purpose The second book of the Spiritual Food for Spiritual Growth series Walking in His Ways emphasizes living triumphantly as we learn His ways and walk in them These books written over a lifetime express truths that changed Nancy s life and the lives of others Her heart felt messages are uplifting and encouraging inspiring us in our walk with the Lord About the Author Nancy Taylor Tate serves as Director of Parousia Ministries carrying the vision passed on from her father Wade Taylor Her special gift of relating to and loving people stems from her own love for Jesus and His Kingdom Her background as pastor teacher administrator author and missionary has prepared her for what the Lord is doing today Nancy with her husband Allen hosts Parousia Ministries Gatherings and travels from time to time to speak and pray with others Their faith building messages center on being made ready the preparation of our lives and the indwelling presence of Christ made known to others through us Global and Local Televangelism P. Thomas,P. Lee,2012-07-30 An exploration of the many faces of televangelism in our world today including Christian Islamic and Hindu The collection analyses the correspondences and major differences between global and local televangelism focusing on the main individuals involved in televangelism their practices and the social and cultural impact of their ministries Salvation with a Smile Phillip Luke Sinitiere,2015-11-13 Joel Osteen the smiling preacher has quickly emerged as one of the most recognizable Protestant leaders in the country His megachurch the Houston based Lakewood Church hosts an average of over 40 000 worshipers each week Osteen is the best selling author of numerous books and his sermons and inspirational talks appear regularly on mainstream cable and satellite radio How did Joel Osteen become Joel Osteen How did Lakewood become the largest megachurch in the U S Salvation with a Smile the first book devoted to Lakewood Church and Joel Osteen offers a critical history of the congregation by linking its origins to post World War II neopentecostalism and connecting it to the exceptionally popular prosperity gospel movement and the enduring attraction of televangelism In this richly documented book historian Phillip Luke Sinitiere carefully excavates the life and times of Lakewood s founder John Osteen to explain how his son Joel expanded his legacy and fashioned the congregation into America's largest megachurch. As a popular preacher, Joel Osteen's ministry has been a source of existential strength for many, but also the routine target of religious critics who vociferously contend that his teachings are theologically suspect and spiritually shallow. Sinitiere's keen analysis shows how Osteen's rebuttals have expressed a piety of resistance that demonstrates evangelicalism's fractured but persistent presence. Salvation with a Smile situates Lakewood Church in the context of American religious history and illuminates how Osteen has parlayed an understanding of American religious and political culture into vast popularity and success.

The Missionary Review of the World, 1918 The Missionary Review, 1918 The Missionary Review of the World, 1939 Record of Christian Work Alexander McConnell, William Revell Moody, Arthur Percy Fitt, 1918 Includes music Pieces Patricia Williams-Hall, 2013-05-03 Our lives should always be rejuvenated, renewed, and revitalized. If not, what would be the outcome? It is never too late to resuscitate ourselves, our visions, and aspirations. Created in His image, God made us whole. We are not missing a thing. Sometimes we feel like we are shattered and have left pieces behind that are gone forever, but they are not. The pieces of our lives predetermine a destiny. What pieces given to you have been misplaced, forsaken, pushed asunder, buried, tossed to the wind, stolen, etc. Their value is inconceivable in life because they justify the blueprint regarding your purpose and its pursuit in life. The compilation of Pieces addresses the resurrection of failures, broken dreams, hopes, aspirations, and whatever else caused the pieces of your life to seemingly unravel and cause you to question your identity and existence. Simply resuscitate and live. Live your abundant, predestined life. Why? Because you were created in the image of God. Pieces reflects who you really are, not who you think you are. You have to be cognizant of who you are in the eyes of God. You are called to soar on eagles' wings. Pieces launches you in that direction. Take flight.

The Ground of Holy Life David D. Cho, 2021-08-12 The Reformation put the grace of God in the right place in the salvation of man. Luther's proclamation of justification by faith brought the concept of grace to the fore and made it the centrality of Christian theology. But the overemphasis on the doctrine of justification in the Reformation created the imbalance between justification and sanctification in the soteriology of the Protestant church. To some people, just the profession of faith without an accompanying godly life was not good enough for salvation. It seemed that salvation by grace of God in the doctrine of justification made man's salvation too easy, thereby opening the floodgate for nominal Christians who were no different from pagans in their hearts. Christian leaders and theologians in the modern church age have tried to rectify this problem by injecting the necessity of works into the Christian life. The spiritual movements such as pietism and perfectionism and new theologies such as the New Perspective on Paul and the Federal Vision are such endeavors that have stressed good works in the salvation of man. However, without the concept of definitive sanctification, they all lost the monergistic nature of salvation and deviated to the humanistic theology of Arminianism or Pelagianism.
