E. Wilmer,2023-01-09 This edited volume reconsiders the notion of life and conceptualizes those forms of life which have been excluded from modern philosophy such as post Anthropocene life the life of non human animals and the life of inorganic objects The contributors who include prominent contemporary philosophers and theorists ask a wide range of questions including what new forms of subjectivity can we see with the return of the Anthropos what can animals teach us in the Anthropocene can we reconstruct the perceptual world of animals and take a look into their subjectivity what happens to inorganic matter waste or digital objects when no longer used by any subject and can we think about inorganic matter in terms of subjective self awareness The first section Life Beyond the Anthropocene critically questions Anthropocene theory and outlines alternative scenarios such as Gaia theory or post Anthropocene forms of life on Earth and other planets as well as new forms of subjectivity The second part Human and Non

Human Interactions investigates the obscure boundary between life and non life and between human and non human animal life forms The third part Forms of Life and New Ontologies concentrates on new ontologies and discusses life in terms of vitalism new materialism movement form taking activity and plasticity
