he laughed again and in a hoarse voice sorely suggestive of the bottle he broke into song He lay back in his chair his long spare legs outstretched his spurs jingling to the lilt of his ditty whose burden ran On the lip so red of the wench that sped His passionate kiss burns still O For tis April time and of love and wine Youth s way is to take its fill O Down down derry do So his cup he drains and he shakes his reins And rides his rake helly way O She was sweet to woo and most comely too But that was all yesterday O Down down derry do The lad started forward with something akin to a shiver Have done he cried in a voice of loathing or if croak you must choose a ditty less fou
