Fashion's Missing Masses: The representation of marginalized populations in collections and exhibitions of dress Kenna Libes, 2026-01-06 Fashion's Missing Masses fills a gap in literature on museums and fashion collections and focuses on the display of clothing and fashion that has historically been left out of the canon The fifteen essays in this volume span topics on Indigenous and traditional dress disabled and fat bodies and queer and ethnic identities Their authors study the ways that dress and textiles have been collected displayed and often ignored across a century and a half of museum exhibitions Representation and inclusion in fashion museums is a new and rapidly evolving area of research in the reexamination of dress history These chapters provide unique information and perspectives on curation collections management conservation and research which will be valuable to a wide group of audiences working teaching and learning in and about museums This volume touches on practical concerns of exhibition including mannequin availability and difficulties of mounting dress as well as broader questions of scholarship and activism that will be key for educators and researchers who wish to stay abreast of developments in this field Diversity in fashion is a hot topic and understanding the line between tokenization and representation in spaces of institutional authority is crucial to learning how we can better serve our diverse populations in the teaching of history Decorative Textiles George Leland Hunter,1918 The Museum,1925 Museum publications Jan 1929 v 2 p 28 32 Textile Treasures George Walter Vincent Smith Art Museum,Sigrun Marrocco,Carolyn Samonds,1987 Museum of Fine Arts Bulletin Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,1909
