Textures Of Place Exploring Humanist Geographies:

Textures of Place Paul C. Adams, Steven D. Hoelscher, Karen E. Till, 2001 A fresh and far ranging interpretation of the concept of place this volume begins with a fundamental tension of our day as communications technologies help create a truly global economy the very political economic processes that would seem to homogenize place actually increase the importance of individual localities which are exposed to global flows of investment population goods and pollution Place no less today than in the past is fundamental to how the world works The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations Their essays draw from a wide array of methodologies and perspectives including feminism ethnography poststructuralism ecocriticism and landscape ichnography to examine themes as diverse as morality and imagination attention and absence personal and group identity social structure home nature and cosmos

Textures of Place Paul C. Adams, 2001 The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations

Approaches to Human Geography Stuart Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2006-01-06 Approaches to Human Geography is the essential student primer on theory and practice in human geography It is a systematic review of the key ideas and debates informing post war geography explaining how those ideas work in practice In three sections the text provides A comprehensive contextualising essay Introducing Philosophies People and Practices Philosophies written by the principal proponents easily comprehensible accounts of Positivist Geographies Humanism Feminist Geographies Marxism Structuration Theory Behavioral Geography Realism Post Structuralist Theories Actor Network Theory and Post Colonialism People prominent geographers explain events that formed their ways of knowing the section offers situated accounts of theory and practice by for example David Ley Linda McDowell and David Harvey Practices applied accounts of Quantification Evidence and Positivism Geographic Information Systems Humanism Geography Political Activism and Marxism the Production of Feminist Geographies Poststructuralist Theory Environmental Inquiry in a Postcolonial World Contested Geographies Student Exercises and Glossary Avoiding jargon while attentive to the rigor and complexity of the ideas that underlie geographic knowledge the text is written for students who have not met philosophical or theoretical approaches before This is a beginning guide to geographic research and practice Comprehensive and accessible it will be the core text for courses on Approaches to Human Geography Philosophy and Geography and the History of Geography and a key resource for students beginning research projects Rethinking the Meaning of Place Lineu Castello,2016-03-23 The spread of newly invented places such as theme parks shopping malls and revamped historic areas necessitates a redefinition of the concept of place from an architectural perspective In this interdisciplinary work these invented places are categorized according to the different phenomenological experiences they are able to provide The book explores how such cloning spaces use placemaking and placemarketing in attempt to replicate the characteristics found in urban spaces traditionally viewed as successful and how these places can affect society s environmental perception A range of international empirical studies illustrates how such invented places can be perceived as legitimate urban spaces and contribute towards the quality of life in today s cities Running Cultures John Bale,2004 Running is one of the world s most widely practiced sports and recreations but until now it has intended to elude serious study outside of the natural sciences John Bale brings the sport into the realm of the humanities by drawing on sources including literature poetry film art and sculpture as well as statistics and training manuals to highlight the tensions ambiguities and complexities that lie hidden beneath the commonplace notion of running The text explores both local and personal as well as communal and global aspects of running and its practitioners It examines the streets tracks and stadiums where athletes run the races in which they compete and the running relationships such as exist between the athlete and the coach between runners and between the athlete and spectator It discusses the importance of speed and records how running has been used to symbolise resistance and transgression and the extent to which it can be associated with a healthy lifestyle Running Cultures provides new ways of seeing a familiar sporting phenomenon it will appeal to both students and researchers with an interest in running in particular and sport and leisure cultures more generally Geographies of Media and Communication Paul C. Adams,2009-03-09 This book systematically analyzes the relationship between geography and communication and shows how geographical approaches open up familiar and unfamiliar aspects of communication for analysis and discussion Rethinking the Place of Place in Geography Education Sandra Jane Schmidt,2008 Archiving Lost History Anthony Ralph Vizzari,2005 Inscribing Meaning Sarah Adams,National Museum of African Art (U.S.),2007 Reveals Africa s contributions to the history of writing and inscription system worldwide New Spain, New Literatures Luis

Martín-Estudillo, Nicholas Spadaccini, 2010 This volume which includes essays on Catalonia the Basque country Galicia and literature written by African immigrants focuses on issues of difference that are at the center of current debates in Spain and elsewhere the emergence of minoritized literatures multilingualism and identity new relationships between culture and institutions the negotiation of historical memories the connections between migrations and the redefinition of nationhood and the impact of global trends on local symbolic systems Genre ,2003 Our Way of Life Kimberly Danelle Hedrick, 2007

(Un)settling Suburbia Becky Hsu, 2009 Landscape Allegory in Cinema David Melbye, 2010-06-15 This interdisciplinary study offers an introduction to the relatively unexplored area of the form of cinematic space referred to as the landscape of the mind Exploring the psychological use of natural setting in both avant garde and mainstream cinema this study seeks to understand how these settings serve as outward manifestations of characters inner subjective states David Melbye traces cultural trajectories of landscape depiction as far back as the Middle Ages in painting and literature to nurture a greater awareness of visual allegory in the films of the silent era up through the present focusing specifically on the prolific appearance of landscape allegory in films of the 1960s and 70s The Shadow-walkers T. A. Shippey, 2005 Elves and dwarves trolls and giants talking dragons valkyries and werewolves all these are familiar in modern movies and commercial fantasy But where did the concepts come from Who invented them Almost two centuries ago Jacob Grimm assembled what was known about such creatures in his work on Teutonic Mythology which brought together ancient texts such as Beowulf and the Elder Edda with the material found in Grimm s own famous collection of fairy tales This collection of essays now updates Grimm adding much material not known in his time and also challenges his monolithic interpretations pointing out the diversity of cultural traditions as well as the continuity of ancient myth Environment and Planning ,2007
