Thackeray Malcolm Elwin,1930 Thackeray Malcolm Elwin,1935 William Makepeace Thackeray Malcolm Elwin,1932 The Personality of Thackeray John Davis Adams,1882 Syllabus of a Collegiate Course of Lectures on the History of English Literature in the Nineteenth Century Frederick Henry Sykes,1904 Stylistic Virtue and Victorian Fiction Matthew Sussman,2021-07-01 What is style and why does it matter This book answers these questions by recovering the concept of stylistic virtue once foundational to rhetoric and aesthetics but largely forgotten today Stylistic virtues like ease and grace are distinguishing properties that help realize a text s essential character First described by Aristotle they were integral to the development of formalist methods and modern literary criticism The first half of the book excavates the theory of stylistic virtue during its period of greatest ascendance in the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries when belletristic rhetoric shaped how the art of literary style and the aesthetic were understood The second half offers new readings of Thackeray Trollope and Meredith to show how stylistic virtue changes our understanding of style in the novel and challenges conventional approaches to interpreting the ethics of art A psychological approach to fiction Bernard J. Paris, Psychology helps us to talk about what the novelist knows but fiction helps us to know what the psychologist is talking about So writes the author of this brilliant study The chief impulse of realistic fiction is mimetic novels of psychological realism call by their very nature for psychological analysis This study uses psychology to analyze important characters and to explore the consciousness of the author and the work as a whole What is needed for the interpretation of realistic fiction is a psychological theory congruent with the experience portrayed Emerging from Paris approach are wholly new and illuminating interpretations of Becky Sharp William Dobbin Amelia Sedley Julian Sorel Madame de Renal Mathilde de la Mole Maggie Tulliver the underground man Charley Marlow and Lord Jim The psychological approach employed by Paris helps the reader not only to grasp the intricacies of mimetic characterization but also to make sense of thematic inconsistencies which occur in some of the books under consideration For students of human behavior as well as students of literature the great figures of realistic fiction provide a rich source of empathic understanding and psychological insight Littell's Living Age ,1889 The Atlantic Monthly ,1889 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ,1911 Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ... ,1911 Filmed School James Stillwaggon,David Jelinek,2016-05-12 Filmed School examines the place that teaching holds in the public imaginary through its portrayal in cinema From early films such as M dchen in Uniform and La Maternelle to contemporary images of teaching in Notes on a Scandal and The History Boys teachers roles in film have been consistently contradictory portraying teachers as both seducers and selfless heroes social outcasts and moral models contributing to a similarly divided popular understanding of teachers as both salvific and sinister In this book Stillwaggon and Jelinek present these contradictory images of teaching through the concept of transference the fantastical belief in another s knowing that founds a teacher s authority in relation to her students and to some degree the public at large Tracing the place of transference across a century of school films each chapter demonstrates the persistence of this fantasy in one of the dreams or nightmares of teaching that recurs thematically in school films the teacher as savior seducer signifier in a moribund discourse and sacrificial object Through these analyses the authors suggest that something might be missing in our attempts to theorize education when we leave our unthought fantasies of teaching out of the picture This book will be of key interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of educational theory teacher education philosophy of education film and media studies psychoanalysis sociology of education curriculum studies and cultural studies
