That McKenna Woman Parris Afton Bonds, 1988 Essays and Writings on Love and Women's Issues: The Collection, Vol. I (2012-2019) B. A. Hunter, 2025-10-06 This work contains the earliest blog articles from the author written between the years of 2012-2019 Ranging from mere poetic reflections of the author's traditionalist perspectives on love, romance, and culture to political commentary and legal and historical scholarly essays on the issues of sex and gender roles the author takes a no holds barred attitude persistently ripping into everyone both feminists, antifeminists, and every ideology in between and taking a decidedly nasty and brutal bite out of the so-called manosphere and the blatant hypocrisies inherent in modern-day conservatism Never truly on the Right and never truly on the Left and probably pleasing absolutely nobody the reader can easily note the change as the years go by with the articles undergoing a plain transformation from being shorter and relying more heavily on inter-peer and social connections to blossoming into mere solitary legal-historical scholarly works that span the length of dozens of pages as both the maturity and education of the author deepens A subtle change in perspective and attitude of the author can also be noted where feminism though never proclaimed nor upheld as a social good is blamed less and less over time for all of modern society's ills Women in British Cinema Sue Harper, 2000-06-01 This book takes a broad perspective and analyses the ways in which the British film industry has dealt with women and their creativity from 1930 to the present The first part of the book deals comprehensively with different historical periods in British film culture showing how the agency of production company, director, distribution company, or scriptwriter can bring about new patterns of female stereotyping The second part looks at the input of women workers into the film process It assesses the work of women in a variety of roles directors such as Wendy Toye and Sally Potter producers such as Betty Box scriptwriters such as Clemence Dane and Muriel Box costume designers such as Shirley Russell and Jocelyn Rickards and editors and art directors This is a polemical book which is written in a lively and often confrontational manner It uses fresh archival material and takes energetic issue with those explanatory models of film analysis which impose easy answers onto complex material Female Intelligence Tammy M. Proctor, 2003 Informative and innovative this book focuses on the cultural images, realities, challenges, and contradictions for women in intelligence service in Britain during World War I The Northeastern Reporter, 1899 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Massachusetts, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois and Court of Appeals of New York May/July 1891 Mar/Apr 1936 Appellate Court of Indiana Dec 1926 Feb 1927 Mar/Apr 1936 Courts of Appeals of Ohio Public Women, Public Words Dawn Keetley, John Pettegrew, 2005-02-22 This final volume in the Public Women, Public Words series focuses on what has come to be called the second wave of American feminism It traces the resurgence of feminism in the late 1960s from Betty Friedan and the National Organization for Women to the anarchist and lesbian identity dimensions of radical feminism Including topics such as sexual autonomy, abortion, the Equal Rights Amendment, and the black feminist resistance to the white-dominated second wave this volume

reflects the unprecedented range of women's issues taken up by feminists during the 1970s and beyond Volume III also charts the great diffusion of feminism with separate sections on multicultural feminism and the feminist presence in media and pop culture Finally through the recent writings of feminist intellectuals it looks toward a third feminist wave for the new millennium Public Women Public Words A Documentary History of American Feminism provides a comprehensive view of the many strands of feminist thought and actions and is essential for every women's studies and feminism collection
