Howard Good, Michael J. Dillon, 2002-03-30 Certain films seem to encapsulate perfectly the often abstract ethical situations that confront the media from truth telling and sensationalism to corporate control and social responsibility Using these movies including Ace in the Hole, All the President's Men, Network and Twelve Angry Men as texts authors Howard Good and Michael Dillon demonstrate that when properly framed and contextualized movies can be a powerful lens through which to examine media practices Moreover cinema can present human moral conduct for evaluation and analysis more effectively than a traditional case study can By presenting ethical dilemmas and theories within a dramatic framework Media Ethics Goes to the Movies offers a unique perspective on what it means for media professionals to be both technically competent and morally informed
