The Academic Community An Essay On Organization:

The Academic Community John David Millett,1962 For universities the traditional model of governance has been one defined by a consensus oriented decision making process wherein the academic community is self organizing which does not require an external hierarchical authority With the expansion of enrollment the enlargement of activities undertaken and continual financial difficulties many in higher education have embraced the idea that improved organization is a way of addressing these problems This volume examines the question of organization within an academic community The Academic Community Arthur Gill,1962 THE ACADEMIC COMMUNITY: AN ESSAY ON ORGANIZATION.
