World renowned food critic August Cahill is coming to Chicago and a review from him can make or break even the best chef's career. As much as Madeline Metcalf would love for him to sample her goodies, she fears her bistro hasn't made enough of a name for itself yet to earn his attentions. Thankfully her nervous energy is put to good use when Adam, a smokin' hottie she dated her freshman year of college, pops in for a bite. The heat between them has marinated with time, creating a savory dish of desire. When Madeline learns August Cahill will be at the Taste of Chicago event, Adam insists they go. Dragging her to the pulled pork cook-off, he feeds her succulent tastes that leave juices dribbling down her chin. But when Madeline learns Adam has been keeping a startlingly truth from her, it cooks up a recipe for disaster. Crank up the heat and slather on the sauce; this kitchen is getting hot.

Working with the New England elite, she's used to yacht club snobs glaring down their noses at her as she serves them dinner and caters to their extravagant whims. Thankfully they tip well, and London needs every cent she can get. One shift goes from bad to worse when Max Richmond saunters in. As if she needed another reminder why she should never mingle with the sailors, he has the audacity to ignore her. London wasn't looking to sail off into the sunset with him after the night they spent together, but acknowledging her would have been common decency. She follows Max into the bathroom, fully intending to give him a piece of her mind. Instead, she finds herself getting wonderfully reacquainted with his drive shaft. Now Max is insistent that London join him at the Kingstown Regatta. Surrounded by his uppity friends and family, London fears the divide between their lives is too deep for any vessel to sail. While she's ready to weigh anchor and move on, Max is manning his helm and prepared to show her they can weather the roughest of seas together. Climb aboard and wax the deck; the motion of this ocean will leave you weak in the knees.

By the end of the night, more was dropping than just the ball. Convinced she could have fun without getting attached, Natalie treats herself to a weekend tangled in the sheets with him. But that lie she told herself pops faster than champagne bubbles. With media rumors swirling around Brennan, can the pair find a way to make their unlikely relationship work?
