The General's Wife Brenda Dawn Gantt, 2025-12-02 It has been over eight years since my husband chose to leave me I have survived double knee replacement two back surgeries foot surgery and cancer in both my breasts I know God was working for my survival through a terrible divorce and my illnesses I could have never made it without my faith My ex husband died in 2018 I feel sorry for his death and have no ill feelings toward him as I know in the end he was mentally imbalanced from dementia His family and ex wife took control over him before he left me until the divorce all for money I was a good loving wife I treated my husband like a king I trusted him and withstood his temper tantrums and intimidations all through my marriage I was obedient in order to survive He as a tall man and had the ability stand over me in a very threatening manner I never questioned him and had no idea he was unfaithful to me with other women and his ex wife His ex wife was the last person on this earth I would have dreamed he was seeing He would always tell me and others he was ashamed of her and she would have ruined his military career He was a stranger to me in the end My experiences during a two year long divorce and afterward have made me unbelievably strong I had been surrounded by lies and deceit for 39 years I have a wonderful life without anymore stress I have been set free from a man who had no respect for me and that I could not please I don't have any more health problems that I know of I'm with friends and family every day I feel blessed that I have been set free without any more worries I felt compelled to write this book with the hope it will in some way help others who are faced with abuse and control
