The Gerontological Prism Developing Interdisciplinary Bridges:

The Gerontological Prism: Developing Interdisciplinary Bridges Jeffrey Michael Clair, Richard Allman, 2018-10-26 The Gerontological Prism promotes disciplinary cooperation in aging research and practice To some extent each chapter explores a unified objective that of generating a disciplinary blind gerontology The fundamental assumption throughout this book is that the aging individual and society can be enhanced by an understanding of the correlates of basic social behavioral demographic economic political ethical and biomedical processes involving aging Each author touches on issues that have both social psychological and practical policy significance They aim toward sensitizing the reader to the possibilities of a properly informed interdisciplinary approach to gerontology

Handbook of the Clinical Psychology of Ageing Robert T. Woods, Linda Clare, 2015-04-13 The first authoritative reference on clinical psychology and aging the Handbook of the Clinical Psychology of Ageing was universally regarded as a landmark publication when it was first published in 1996 Fully revised and updated the Second Edition retains the breadth of coverage of the original providing a complete and balanced picture of all areas of clinical research and practice with older people Contributions from the UK North America Scandinavia and Australia provide a broad overview of the psychology of aging psychological problems including depression anxiety psychosis and dementia the current social service context and assessment and intervention techniques

Ageing and Long-term Care David R. Phillips, 2014-05-14 The case studies in this book focus on the emergence extent and nature of national policies on ageing and associated strategies to address long term care needs Key opportunities for and constraints on policy are identified in this first round of regional studies

The New Science of Ageing Alan Walker, 2014-08-29 This unique book represents the first multi disciplinary examination of ageing covering everything from basic cell biology to social participation in later life to the representations of old age in the arts and literature A comprehensive introductory text about the latest scientific evidence on ageing the book draws on the pioneering New Dynamics of Ageing Programme the UK s largest research programme in ageing This programme brought together leading academics from across the arts and humanities social and biological sciences and fields of engineering and medical research to study how ageing is changing and the ways in which this process can be made more beneficial to both individuals and society Comprising individual local national and global perspectives this book will appeal to everyone with an interest in one of the greatest challenges facing the world our own ageing

The Need for Theory Simon Biggs, Jon Hendricks, Ariela Lowenstein, 2020-11-25 The Need for Theory speaks to the burgeoning need for critical thinking in social gerontology The editors have brought together some of the foremost contributors to theoretical advances in the field This volume incorporates state of the art theorizing with a focus on selected topical areas facing gerontologists around the world Using their keen insights into substantive issues the contributors examine personal and structural changes affecting individuals over the life course Extolling the need for theory is not enough the contributors focus their insights on a panoply of substantive issues linking the personal with the political and with the structural parameters that shape the process of aging no matter where it occurs

The International Journal of Aging & Human Development, 2006 American Book Publishing Record, 2000 Social Work in Context Kalyani Mehta, Ann Wee, 2004 This book locates social work in the Asian context and discusses the applications of theories principles and values according to the socio economic and cultural context of Southeast Asia As social work as a profession is very closely related to the context in which it operates this book will prove very useful for undergraduates as well as students who are studying diplomas in social work

Family in Transition Arlene S. Skolnick, Jerome H. Skolnick, 2003 This classic reader on families and intimate relationships identifies the most current trends places them in historical context and balances cutting edge scholarship with perennial favorites

Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, 2001 Psychotherapy for Depression in Older Adults Sara Honn Qualls, Bob G. Knight, 2006-10-20 The first book in the new Wiley Series on Geropsychology Psychotherapy for Depression in Older Adults is a practical resource created by a team of international luminaries in the field Developed in conjunction with the Gerontology Center of the University of Colorado this expert guide provides evidence based treatment approaches for alleviating depression in older adults

Public and Private Families Andrew J. Cherlin, 2005 This reader examines the family through two lenses the familiar private family in which we live our personal lives and the public family in which we deal with broader societal issues such as raising the next generation and the care of the elderly Consequently these readings look both at intimate personal concerns such as whether to marry as well as societal concerns such as governmental policies that affect families The reader corresponds exactly to and is published concurrent with Cherlin's textbook Public and Private Families: An Introduction both the textbook and the reader have 15 same named chapters

Psychology of Aging Martin Orrell, Aimee Spector, 2009 This volume offers a collection of classic original and often widely cited papers including some older papers which may be hard to find through conventional searches They address a broad range of key issues such as cognitive changes related to aging social and emotional changes lifestyle factors dependency on carers and related mental health problems in old age

Language Matters Christopher N. Candlin, Sik Hung Ng, Chi-yue Chiu, 2004 This book stresses on the social purpose of language use and its cognitive development It covers a diverse set of topics with many real life illustrations of the interaction of culture identity and communication

Hallym International Journal of Aging, 2001 Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. Document Supply Centre, 2000 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2000-06 □□□□□□□□□□ □□□, 2005 On aging people and their problems in Malaysia society
