C. Skipper,1978 While doing research for their term paper two youngsters find it difficult to ignore rumors about the ghosts haunting the site of a colonial ironworks The Ghost of the Manor House Francine Enea,2021-04-06 Aiden MacGill has died but remained on his property He is saddened that he has not gone to heaven with his wife When they lived in Scotland Fiona grew weak and sick from the cold weather of the Highlands He bought property in Placer California because he heard that there was gold in the hills He brought his wife there and settle in a cabin he built next to his gold mine He latter returned to Scotland with his two sons and dismantled the out buildings on his property He shipped the stones to California and with the help of his sons he built a wee castle often referred to as a manor house He was very lucky and hit a mother load But all that gold did him little good when his wife died When he died and didn t go to heaven he became very angry with God He turned his back on God and hated Hm When he died his sons sold the estate to a group of nuns that ran the castle as a boarding school for girls When they could not pay the taxes they abandon the estate Thirty years later Finnian MacGill an ancestor to Aiden MacGill took on the property with the intent to restore the carriage house to an event center and the castle to a bed and breakfast He and his sons worked on the carriage house to extend the loft to house three bedrooms with en suites with the intent to live there while they worked on the castle He hired his soon to be daughter in law who had her own design business to refurbish the classrooms back to bedrooms with the addition of en suites in each room He promised to hire a carpenter to help her with the project When the carpenter showed up Bridget was impressed with his skills and the speed in which he got things done However some of the projects were completed in superhuman time Bridget became skeptical and confronted Mac to explain how he was able to work so fast He admitted to her that he was a ghost and worked with another ghost that was new to death and had trouble materializing After they proved to her that they were ghosts she was told that she could not reveal their secret This posed a problem because she had promised her newly wed husband that she would not keep secrets from him and he pledged the same to her The two projects were coming along nicely but cashflow became a problem When Mac learned of this he produced gold nuggets that he still had This allowed the projects to proceed When Bridget was away Mac and Ralph accidentally was visible to Mr Stewart who was the farmer that was putting in a vegetable garden and fruit orchard on the property They realized that by being visible to everyone they could be hidden in plain sight When Ian saw how handsome Mac was and how Bridget enjoyed working with him he became jealous No matter what Bridget did or said to assuage his jealousy nothing stuck So Bridget insisted that they seek counseling Ian did work hard to overcome his insecurities that caused his jealousy When cashflow became a problem for the family Mac produced gold nuggets that Bridget sold for cash Mac finally confided in Bridget and told her that he want to get back in relationship with God She was such a good model of love and care for all her staff He wanted to learn more about why he has not gone to heaven Bridget told him that he had to love God with all his mind heart and soul She brought him through a believers prayer and bought him a red letter Bible to study Jesus words and meditate on them He wanted to go to confession with a priest but could not leave the property Bridget got permission from the bishop to build a chapel on the property She had Mac and Ralph build the chapel He was able to go to confession with a priest The priest gave him a creative penance that he promised to fulfill Real Ghost Stories E.

Heron,1898 The Mystery at Winterburn Manor Grahame Peace,2019-07-02 A grave covered in strange symbols in the grounds of a 17th century Manor what could it mean Winterburn Manor is a 17th century house and one of the oldest Manor houses in England It has stood empty for over 25 years and is now owned by the famous water colour artist Elspeth Potter She has been painstakingly renovating the house for the past four years but has only recently moved into the property living there alone All Elspeth knows about the house s history is that it was built for the wealthy Evesham family most of whom are buried in the church graveyard in the grounds of the Manor The last owner of the house was the famous author Edmund Williams a specialist in world religions who wrote gruesome horror stories he s also buried in the graveyard Elspeth doesn t

believe in ghosts but finds it hard to explain what she hears and sees at the Manor Strange symbols have been etched onto some of the wood panelled walls and objects and furniture move on their own during the night The symbols have also been found on Edmund Williams headstone what could it all mean Elspeth is convinced that something evil is lurking at the Manor and it s hiding a dark secret She calls in The Psychic Agency a group of psychic investigators and the clock starts ticking as they try to unravel a decades old mystery before they all become Winterburn Manor s next victims Meet Jasper a time travelling super ghost with a sense of humour in these eerie historic amusing paranormal stories The Ghost from the Molly House is a collection of amusing paranormal historical mysteries which will appeal to fans of antiquity period detective novels tales of haunted houses and all things that go bump in the night Although this is the fifth book in the series the novel can be enjoyed as a stand alone story in its own right
