The Prophets and the Law Richard Victor Bergren, 1974 Originally presented as the author's thesis Hebrew Union College Jewish Institute of Religion The Law and the Prophets, Or, The Revelation of Jehovah in Hebrew History from the Earliest Times to the Capture of Jerusalem by Titus Alexandre Westphal, 1910 The Prophets and the Law Joseph Rhymer, 1968 The Law and the Prophets Walther Zimmerli, 2010-07-01 The Law and the Prophets Stephen B. Chapman, 2000 The standard theory of Old Testament canon formation describes a literary process of linear development in three successive stages In spite of intermittent criticism the theory has continued to find its place in textbooks and introductions Here Stephen B Chapman marshals all of the important counter arguments to the theory and proposes a fresh way to conceive of the canonical process based upon evidence internal and external to the biblical text He argues against the standard theory by exposing its internal inconsistencies and critiquing its methodological presuppositions especially its assumptions about human agency and the nature of canonization Using Charles Altieri's literary application of Canadian philosopher Charles Taylor's theory of the self the author redescribes the canonization of the Old Testament as a process of strong evaluation whose goal was to provide a religious framework for the evaluation of personal and communal alternatives rather than the imposition of ideology He redefines the Old Testament canon as the theological grammar formed by the coordination of discrete scriptures into a coherent collection but retaining their plurality as integral to canonicity Stephen B Chapman also demonstrates that the status of the prophetic writings prior to their canonization has remained an intractable problem for the standard theory He shows how nomistic assumptions about canonization have sustained the view that the prophetic corpus was always subordinate to the Pentateuch even though this view is at odds with the exegetical evidence By detailed analysis of canon conscious editing within the Pentateuch and the prophetic corpus he illustrates how collections of Law and Prophets developed simultaneously and mutually influenced each other The Four Leading Doctrines of the New Church Emanuel Swedenborg, 1873 The Four Doctrines with the Nine Questions ... Emanuel

Swedenborg,1904 Theological Works: The four doctrines of the New Jerusalem. [v. 24] The new Jerusalem and its heavenly doctrine Emanuel Swedenborg,1902 The Deep Things of God Thomas Pulickal,2020-03-03 In the beginning the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and the man became a living soul This breath of the living soul was breathed out by Christ at His death on the Cross and again after the resurrection He breathed on the disciples the Spirit of God saying Receive the Holy Spirit thereby enabling man the transition from the first man Adam into the second man Christ At the death of Christ the old covenant along with the external and natural ways of relating with God was nailed to the Cross bringing forth in His resurrection the New Covenant life the body of resurrection known as the body of Christ where all those united to Christ in the spirit become one with Him God wants the entire mankind to live in and by the New Covenant which is the reality or substance of the person of Christ as the indwelling life within us since this is the eternal plan purpose and will of God The Bible thus presents two realms one of death and the other of life through the old and the New Covenant with two different types of relationships God did not improve or modify the first man Adam on the Cross but crucified Adam in Christ and this is known as the judgement where Adam has been separated from Christ This reality has to be inworked within the soul of every human being for the transition from the natural and the earthly into the heavenly and the spiritual and thus from the living soul Adam to the life giving Spirit Christ This book unfolds the truth that Christianity is neither a religion nor an organisation but a true Christian is characterised by the resurrected life of Christ dwelling within him This realisation enables him to produce the fruit which is the increase of Christ and thereby achieve the harvest of a people living by the life of Christ In this way true salvation defined as the fullness of Christ in the human soul becomes a reality proclaiming to the world that the evidence of salvation is It is not I who live but Christ who lives in me Puritan theology; or, Law, grace, and truth, discourses George Macaulay,1872 My confession; My religion; The Gospel in brief graf Leo Tolstoy,1899 Making Laws for a Christian Society Roy Flechner,2021-03-30 This is the first comprehensive study of the contribution that texts from Britain and Ireland made to the development of canon law in early medieval Europe The book concentrates on a group of insular texts of church law chief among them the Irish Hibernensis tracing their evolution through mutual influence their debt to late antique traditions from around the Mediterranean their reception and occasional rejection by clerics in continental Europe their fusion with continental texts and their eventual impact on the formation of a European canonical tradition Canonical collections penitentials and miscellanies of church law and royal legislation are all shown to have been living texts which were continually reshaped through a process of trial and error that eventually gave rise to a more stable and more coherent body of church laws Through a meticulous text critical study Roy Flechner argues that the growth of church law in Europe owes as much to a serendipitous conversation between texts as it does to any deliberate plan overseen by bishops and popes Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers: First Series, Volume IV St. Augustine: The Writings Against the Manichaeans, and Against the Donatists Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume IV of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find Augustines writings defending the Catholic church against the Manichaeans and the Donatists Manichaeism was a religion developed in Persia by the prophet Mani According to this religion creation has two parts darkness and light Light is God and has ten attributes Opposing this and coeternal with it is darkness and its five attributes Saint Augustine was originally a Manichaean so his defense of Christianity against this religion comes from a deep understanding of its nature Donatists were a group of believers who refused to forgive those who had renounced their faith during a time of persecution which caused a schism in Christianity In opposing these men Augustine attempted to mend the rift Those with an interest in ancient religions will find Augustines writings on Manichaeism one of the most important historical records of that religions practices
