The Lyre Book Matthew Kilbane,2024-02-27 Redefines modern lyric poetry at the intersection of literary and media studies In The Lyre Book Matthew Kilbane urges literary scholars to consider lyric not as a genre or a reading practice but as a media condition the generative tension between writing and sound In addition to clarifying issues central to the study of modern poetry including its proximity to popular song hallowed objecthood and seeming autonomy from historical determination this revisionary theory of lyric presents a new history of modern US poetry as one sonorous practice among many clamorous others Focusing on the mid twentieth century Kilbane traces the impact of new sound technologies on a diverse array of literary and musical works by Lorine Niedecker Harry Partch Louis and Celia Zukofsky Sterling Brown John Wheelwright Langston Hughes Marianne Moore Russell Atkins and Helen Adam Kilbane shows how literary critics can look to media history to illuminate poetry s social life and how media scholars can read poetry for insight into the cultural history of technology In this book the lyric poem emerges as a sensitive barometer of technological change

Envisioning Experience in Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages Giselle de Nie,2016-05-06 Our imagination reveals our experience of ourselves and our world The late philosopher of science and poetry Gaston Bachelard introduced the notion that each image that comes to mind spontaneously is a visual representation of the cognitive and affective pattern that is moving us at the time often unconsciously When such a mental image inspires a picture or text it evokes in the mind of the reader or beholder a replication of the internal pattern that originally inspired the artist or writer Thus mental images are rarely empty phantasies Whereas intellectual concepts are conscious constructions of abstracted relations mental images evoked by texts and pictures often point like dreams to pre verbal experience that patterns itself through multiplying associations and analogies These mental images can also manifest their own limits pointing indirectly to experiences beyond what can be expressed and communicated The six essays in this volume seek to uncover the dynamic patterns in verbal and pictorial images and to evaluate their potentialities and limitations Thematically ordered according to their specific focus the essays begin with material images and move on to increasing degrees of immateriality The subjects treated are verbal descriptions of an icon and of a statue imaginative visions and auditions evoked by material depictions verbal imagery describing imagined sculptures and scenes as compared with drawings of a moving historical pageant drawings of symbolic figures representing subtle relationships between verbal expositions that cannot be syntactically represented dream images that precipitate actual healing and aural patterns in a sounded text that are experienced as images of affective dynamisms

The Wireless Past Emily C. Bloom, 2016-11-08 The Oxford Mid Century Studies series publishes monographs in several disciplinary and creative areas in order to create a thick description of culture in the thirty year period around the Second World War With a focus on the 1930s through the 1960s the series concentrates on fiction poetry film photography theatre as well as art architecture design and other media The mid century is an age of shifting groups and movements from existentialism through abstract expressionism to confessional serial electronic and pop art styles The series charts such intellectual movements even as it aids and abets the very best scholarly thinking about the power of art in a world under new techno political compulsions whether nuclear apocalyptic Cold War propagandized transnational neo imperial super powered or postcolonial The Wireless Past chronicles the emergence of the British Broadcasting Corporation BBC as a significant promotional platform and aesthetic influence for Irish modernism from the 1930s to the 1960s This is the first book length study of Irish literary broadcasting on the BBC and situates the works of W B Yeats Elizabeth Bowen Louis MacNeice and Samuel Beckett in the context of the media environments that shaped their works Drawing upon unpublished radio archives this book shows that radio broadcasting rather than prompting a break with literary history and traditional literary forms in fact served as an important means for reinterpreting the legacies of oral and print traditions In the years surrounding World War II radio came to be seen as a catalyst for literary revivals and simultaneously a force for experimentation This double valence of radio the conjoining of revivalism and experimentation create a distinctive radiogenic aesthetics in mid century modernism
