THE QUINTESSENTIAL CLERIC II Advanced Tactics

A cleric believes in a shield in search of adventure, but he is no mere soldier seeking for treasure. He wields spells not to increase his power, hunger for knowledge, or satisfy only himself. The cleric, as a servant of god, the patron of his flock and spiritual shepherd to the needs of his congregation. The cleric stands undaunted at the gates of perdition, striking down and waging against the abominable hordes of living death and the countless legions of the damned. Cleric he is because the early stages of his career, the cleric has seen enough and done enough that his holy ideals will be compassed by the realities of mortal existence. This makes the cleric an appealing nonalignment, a person with unswerving faith in the glories of the invisible beyond that waits for all who become, who fit also more than familiar enough with the ways in which the victims of the living world can hurt and honey old enemies — and the gods above — to be a hard-fisted warrior.

With the help of this sourcebook, any character choosing the cleric class will find many alternatives and options for expanding the range of abilities. With cleric paths and new multiclassing options, clerics can customize their adventures and skills their chosen branch of training; specialty classes offer an expansion of their character's talents that allow them to go levels and beyond. Magisters give the user of newly optimized spells, and new magical rules are introduced to the levels of divine ceremony magic and the greater domains of faith.

Inside You Will Find:

Cleric Paths	Rules on Exorcism and Exorcism
Multiclassing Variants	Tools of Faith
Prerogative Classes	Orbs of the Trade
Greater Domains	Rules for Ceremony Magic
