The Search for the Etruscans James Wellard,1973     The Search for the Etruscans James Wellard,1973     Mentors to the Romans Richard M. Bongiovanni,Robert A. Bongiovanni,2004 The Etruscans were the highly advanced civilization in Italy that precedes the Romans Most authors gloss over the origins of the Etruscans The author has researched the archeological and linguistic evidence of the Mediterranean and the Near East back to 6000 B C He compares this to the written history of the Etruscans and reaches some interesting new conclusions as to their origins This is followed by a description of the Etruscan cities culture and the art found in their tombs By researching the ancient authors daily life is explained in vivid detail Government and religion are compared to the Romans who inherited these from the Etruscans Finally chronological tables and maps show the relationship of the different cultures in the Italian Peninsula and the Mediterranean back to 6000 B C     Uncovering the Past William H. Stiebing,1994 This study focuses on the development of archaeology as a discipline tracing the milestones in the evolution of systematic excavation It covers the entire history of archaeology from the heroic age 1450 1925 to the advanced stages of archaeology beg     The Triumph of the Sea Gods Steven Sora,2007-06-19 An investigation of the geographical incongruities in Homer s epics locates Troy on the coast of Iberia in a conflict that changed history Cites the rise in sea level in 1200 B C as leading to the invasion and victory of the Atlantean sea people over the goddess worshipping Trojans who ruled the coasts Identifies Troia Troy as part of a tri city area that later became Lisbon Portugal In The Triumph of the Sea Gods Steven Sora argues compellingly that Homer s tales do not describe adventures in the Mediterranean but are adaptations of Celtic myths that chronicle an Atlantic coastal war that took place off the Iberian Peninsula around 1200 B C It was a war between the pro goddess Celtic culture that presided over what is now Portugal and the patriarchal culture of the sea faring Atlanteans The invasion of the Atlantean sea peoples brought destruction to the entire region stretching from Western Europe s Atlantic border to Egypt Syria and Turkey This was a turning point not only politically but also spiritually The goddess became demonized as seen in myths such as Pandora s Box in which woman was seen as the source of evil not the origin of life and Homer s tale of the epic Greek and Trojan war which was triggered by the abduction of a woman The actual historical struggle described in Homer s stories Sora explains occurred during what was the last in a series of rises in sea level that inundated various land masses Atlantis and permitted sea passage to areas previously accessible only by land The Sea Gods Atlanteans attacked the tri city region of Troia Troy near present day Lisbon which shortly thereafter fell victim to a devastating series of seaquakes and tsunamis The war and the subsequent destructive weather broke the power of this seaboard civilization leading to a wholesale invasion by the sea peoples and the rapid decline of the region s goddess worshipping culture that had reigned there since Neolithic times Sora shows how Homer s tales allow the modern world to glimpse this ancient conflict which has been obscured for centuries

Myths of Europe Richard Littlejohns,Sara Soncini,2007 Myths of Europe focuses on the identity of Europe seeking to re assess its cultural literary and political traditions in the context of the 21st century Over 20 authors historians political scientists literary scholars art and cultural historians from five countries here enter into a debate How far are the myths by which Europe has defined itself for centuries relevant to its role in global politics after 9 11 Can Old Europe maintain its traditional identity now that the European Union includes countries previously supposed to be on its periphery How has Europe handled relations with the non European Other in the past and how is it reacting now to an influx of immigrants and asylum seekers It becomes clear that founding myths such as Hamlet and St Nicholas have helped construct the European consciousness but also that these and other European myths have disturbing Eurocentric implications Are these myths still viable today and if so to what extent and for what purpose This volume sits on the interface between culture and politics and is important reading for all those interested in the transmission of myth and in both the past and the future of Europe

The Search for Lost Cities James Wellard,1980 Lost Cities of Atlantis, Ancient Europe & the Mediterranean David Hatcher Childress,1996 Atlantis The legendary lost continent comes under the close scrutiny of archaeologist David Hatcher Childress From Ireland to Turkey Morocco to Eastern Europe or remote islands of the Mediterranean and Atlantic Childress takes the reader on an astonishing quest for mankind s past Ancient technology cataclysms megalithic construction lost civilisations and devastating wars of the past are all explored in this amazing book Childress challenges the sceptics and proves that great civilisations not only existed in the past but that the modern world and its problems are reflections of the ancient world of Atlantis

Fingerprinting the Iron Age: Approaches to identity in the European Iron Age Cătălin Nicolae Popa,Simon Stoddart,2014-09-30 Archaeology has long dealt with issues of identity and especially with ethnicity with modern approaches emphasising dynamic and fluid social construction The archaeology of the Iron Age in particular has engendered much debate on the topic of ethnicity fuelled by the first availability of written sources alongside the archaeological evidence which has led many researchers to associate the features they excavate with populations named by Greek or Latin writers Some archaeological traditions have had their entire structure built around notions of ethnicity around the relationships existing between large groups of people conceived together as forming unitary ethnic units On the other hand partly influenced by anthropological studies other scholars have written forcefully against Iron Age ethnic constructions such as the Celts The 24 contributions to this volume focus on the south east Europe where the Iron Age has until recently been populated with numerous ethnic groups with which specific material culture forms have been associated The first section is devoted to the core geographical area of south east Europe Bulgaria Croatia Romania Serbia and Slovenia as well as Albania and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia The following three sections allow comparison with regions further to the west and the south west with contributions on central and western Europe the British Isles and the Italian peninsula The volume concludes with four papers which provide more synthetic statements that cut across geographical boundaries the final contributions bringing together some of the key themes of the volume The wide array of approaches to identity presented here reflects the continuing debate on how to integrate material culture protohistoric evidence largely classical authors looking in on first millennium BC societies and the impact of recent nationalistic agendas The Medici George Frederick Young,1912 The Medici Col. G. F. Young,1930 Lights of God Murat Ukray,2020-07-11 Are you ready to learn the world's biggest and scariest secret One day Moses saw something very interesting in the Desert A Bush was on fire such as a fireball yet it was not consumed Bible Exodus 3 Archaeologist John Smith finds a very interesting ancient Roman 2000 year old silver coin in the ancient city of Pompeii Italy in 2036 He sets out with his wife Sara and daughter Elsa to Cairo the capital of Egypt to visit his friend Professor Gregory Kravnik to analyze the coin which has some strange figures and some dates written in Roman numerals When he arrives in Cairo a sphere with a source of unknown shining like a fireball with a big explosion descends from the sky and illuminates the whole city with its light in the uninhabited desert somewhere near the Great Pyramids Meanwhile John Smith who was close to the incident received a very important information from his friend Gregory about analyzing the symbols and what the symbols on it were saying and when he returned to his hotel his car stopped suddenly after that explosion A mysterious hand touches the back of his car and he shouts Help But that night he has never even passed through his mind that the person whom he will take in his car is the one who will change the future and will be one of the most important figures in the history of mankind that three great religions await At the same time John's friend Professor Gregory Kravnik and his assistant Katya who have been working at Archeology Institute of Cairo State University is about to uncover the world's most mysterious sect which has changed the history of the world and had kept a secret for 500 years This Medieval Jesuit sect known as the Jesuits coded it into everything and described it in encrypted form in the paintings of famous painters However Gregory and John will find out before it's too late that these two big secrets with the same goal have a very important connection with the light sphere descending into the desert that night Moreover this Earth's Biggest Secret that they will learn that night has the power to change all known Religions History All these connections and codes point to a very important event that could change the world in 2036 But it won't be easy for them to learn this a deadly hustle and bustle waiting for them will also start at the same time All intelligence organizations around the world including Vatican FBI and CIA are into this incident and besides John and his family's life are now in danger Beyond all this the great prophecy which is mentioned in all Holy Books and is depicted symbolically in the Old Testament the New Testament and the Qur'an is about to come true Now with the realization of this prophecy humanity has to either face God or fight with the devil and find a new way to stop the Doomsday

The Cities and Cemeteries of Etruria George Dennis,1883 History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson,Anthony F. Janson,2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book s incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years
