The Second Isaiah Christopher R. North, 2005-03-03 This all purpose commentary is by the author of The Suffering Servant in Deutero Isaiah It meets the needs of the specialist but most of it should be intelligible to preachers and teachers who know little or no Hebrew The Introduction discusses the literary structure of the prophecy the theology of Deutero Isaiah with some reference to current theological debate and the problem of Salvation History The exegetical notes are based on the author's own translation from the Hebrew text The purpose of the book is to elucidate the message of the Prophet in the context of Scripture as a whole

Isaiah 40-66 Shalom M. Paul, 2012-05-01 In depth exegesis from a renowned Hebrew scholar This Eerdmans Critical Commentary volume is Shalom Paul's comprehensive all inclusive study of the oracles of an anonymous prophet known only as Second Isaiah who prophesied in the second half of the sixth century B C E Paul examines Isaiah 40-66 through a close reading of the biblical text offering thorough exegesis of the historical linguistic literary and theological aspects of the prophet's writings He also looks carefully at intertextual influences of earlier biblical and extrabiblical books draws on the contributions of medieval Jewish commentators and supports the contention that Second Isaiah should include chapters 55-66 thus eliminating the need to demarcate a Third Isaiah

Maccabean Martyr Traditions in Paul's Theology of Atonement Jarvis J. Williams, 2010-01-01 In an age in which scholars continue to produce books on the nature and significance of Jesus's death books that often assume the Old Testament cult was the New Testament authors primary background for their conception of Jesus's death Jarvis J Williams offers a fresh and novel contribution regarding both the nature of and background influences behind Paul's conception of Jesus's death He argues that Paul's conception of Jesus's death both as an atoning sacrifice and as a saving event for Jews and Gentiles was significantly influenced by Maccabean Martyr Theology To argue his thesis Williams engages in an intense exegesis of 2 and 4 Maccabees while also interacting with other Second Temple Jewish texts that are relevant to his thesis Williams further interacts with relevant Old Testament texts and the key texts in the Pauline corpus He argues that the authors of 2 and 4 Maccabees present the deaths of the Jewish martyrs during the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes IV as atoning sacrifices and as a saving event for Israel He further argues that although the Old Testament's cultic language certainly influenced Paul's understanding of Jesus's death at certain junctures in his letters the Old Testament cult alone which emphasized animal sacrifices cannot fully explain why or even how Paul could conceive of Jesus's death a human sacrifice as both an atoning sacrifice and a saving event for Jews and Gentiles Finally Williams highlights the lexical theological and conceptual parallels between Martyr Theology and Paul's conception of Jesus's death Even if scholars disagree with Williams's thesis or methodology serious Pauline scholars interested in the background influences behind and the nature and significance of Jesus's death in Paul's theology will want to interact with this work

Textual analysis of the Great Isaiah Scroll from Cave 1 shows that even biblical scrolls can be products of creative reading of the ancient text by scribes This book explores the nature of scribal changes in the large Isaiah scroll from Qumran 1QIsaa It offers a detailed examination of the harmonizations explications and modernizations of the text of Isaiah by the Qumran scribe The scribal changes in the manuscript betray his conceptual milieu and the various facets of this milieu are elaborated upon Pulikottil argues that those scribes who were engaged in the production of the biblical scrolls and who quoted from the biblical scrolls were not committed to a standard text There is no evidence that the biblical scrolls copied at Qumran were made with a view to being followed by the scribe of the non biblical texts as their standard text but were made according to the individual notions of the scribes His work thus takes a new direction in the study of the biblical scrolls from Qumran different from that of standard text critical approaches Biblical scrolls can be now looked at as products of creative reading of the ancient text by scribes and not just as a bundle of sc
